AMITABH BACHCHAN IS DEEPIKA PADUKONE'S 'THE INTERN', REPLACES LATE RISHI KAPOOR

Amitabh Bachchan has replaced late actor Rishi Kapoor in the Indian adaptation of the Hollywood film 'The Intern', which will also feature Deepika Padukone. Deepika took to her Instagram handle to make the announcement. She also shared the first look poster of the movie with her fans. The poster has Big B and Deepika's names written in bold along with their silhouettes walking towards each other. She captioned the post, "What an absolute honour to be collaborating with one of my most special co-star again! Welcoming @amitabhbachchan to the Indian adaptation of #TheIntern." Rishi had passed away last year after a two-year battle with cancer. This is not the first time that Big B and Deepika are coming together on screen. They have worked together earlier in Shoojit Sircar's 'Piku'. Apart from this, Big B and Deepika will also be seen reuniting on screen for Nag Ashwin's untitled next. The film also stars Prabhas in the lead role.

'The Intern' is being helmed by Amit Sharma of 'Badhaai Ho' fame and it is being jointly produced by Sunil Kheterpal, Deepika Padukone in association with Warner Bros India. The screenplay has been penned by Akshat Ghildial and Mitesh Shah. The release date of the film is yet to be announced. The original film was helmed by Nancy Meyers and followed the story of a 70-year-old widower who gets bored of retirement and decides to apply as an intern at an online fashion site. It starred Anne Hathaway and Robert De Niro in the lead roles. On the work front, apart from the Indian adaptation of 'The Intern', Amitabh has films like 'Jhund', 'Brahmastra', 'Goodbye', 'May Day', and several others in his pipeline. Deepika, on the other hand, has films like Shakun Batra's next, Siddharth Anand's 'Fighter' co-starring Hrithik Roshan, '83' with husband Ranveer Singh and 'Pathan' co-starring Shah Rukh Khan and John Abraham in the lead roles.

When Anushka Sharma said she'll be a great mother, it has a Ranbir Kapoor connection

Anushka Sharma has been in the news ever since she announced her pregnancy with her husband Virat Kohli last year in August and after she gave birth to a baby girl, Vamika, on January 11, 2021. But did you know that back in 2015, Anushka was so confident that she would be a good mother that she had said it in an interview to a news channel? During the promotion of her film Bombay Velvet with co-star Ranbir Kapoor, Anushka had said that dealing with his childlike ways had trained her for the future, when she'd have a kid of her own. She told NDTV, "He wants to know everything that's happening. He would walk into my makeup room and start opening drawers. He'd open my handbag. If I'm on my phone, he'll want to see what I'm doing on my phone. He's a child. I'll be a great mother because I've been around Ranbir Kapoor." Speaking on a more serious note, Anushka said that it is Ranbir's curiosity that makes him a 'great actor'. "He's very, very curious, to the extent that sometimes it's annoying and you want to hit him," Anushka said. Apart from 'Bombay Velvet', Ranbir and Anushka have worked together in Karan Johar's 'Ae Dil Hai Mushkil' and Rajkumar Hirani's box office hit 'Sanju'.

Bollywood beauty Urvashi Rautela recently shared a look on her Instagram account that is going the distance. Urvashi has made a name for herself by doing versatile roles in "Virgin Bhanupriya", "Pagalpanti", "Singh Saab the Great", "Mr. Airavata", "Sanam Re", and many other films.

In her latest photo that is breaking the internet, Urvashi can be seen draped in a simple saree with a black blouse that goes along with the color of the saree, however, what is eye-catching in this photo is a mangal sutra and sindoor. Urvashi captioned the post saying, "I have a bad habit that not many have these days. I keep my WORD." The look is going viral as fans can't figure out what next Urvashi is coming up with, donning this de-glam look.

On the work front, Urvashi Rautela will be seen in 2021's most awaited cop-action-thriller web series 'Inspector Avinash' produced alongside Randeep Hooda. The actress is also excited for her international music collaboration 'Versace' with the Egyptian superstar Mohamed Ramadan.

Urvashi will also be making her Tamil debut in a big-budget multilingual sci-fi film the most interesting part about this debut is that Urvashi Rautela will be playing the role of a microbiologist and an IITian. Apart from this Urvashi Rautela will be starring in "Black Rose" a bilingual thriller, and a Hindi remake of "Thirutu Payale 2". Urvashi Rautela will also be seen romancing with the famous Punjabi singer Guru Randhawa in the upcoming music video "Mar Jayenge".

Recently, Urvashi Rautela had grabbed headlines after 2018 rumours of her dating Indian cricketer Rishabh Pant resurfaced. According to reports by Pinkvilla, before the couple made their relationship public, Rishabh blocked Urvashi on WhatsApp. Reports stated that Urvashi's spokesperson had said that it was a decision taken by both parties to block each other on the popular messaging app. Reports had stated that Rishabh had blocked Urvashi as he 'did not want to take things forward' in terms of their relationship.

COVID-19 positive Alia Bhatt gives a glimpse into her quarantine life

On April 1, 2021, Alia Bhatt tested positive for coronavirus and has been home-quarantining since then. The actor took to her Instagram story and shared the news with her followers which read as "I have tested positive for COVID-19. I have immediately isolated myself and will be under home quarantine. I am following all safety protocols under the advice of my doctors. Grateful for all your love and support. Please stay safe and take care."

In her post, several celebs including Neetu Kapoor, Riddhima Kapoor Sahni, Athiya Shetty, Dia Mirza and others showered her with love and heart emojis.

Riddhima wrote, "cuteness", while Dia commented, "get well sooooooon." Alia's best friend and actor Akansha Ranjan Kapoor also stated, "One call at a time."

Meanwhile, on the work front, Alia will next be seen in Sanjay Leela Bhansali directorial Gangubai Kathiawadi. In the film, the actor plays a titular role and the actor had earlier resumed shoot after testing negative for COVID-19.

For the uninitiated, both Ranbir Kapoor and SLB were tested coronavirus positive a few weeks back. On April 1, RK and Alia were even snapped by the paps outside a dubbing studio.

Sushmita Sen speaks about 15-year-old guy misbehaving with her in public

Sushmita Sen never shies away from speaking about anything whether on a public platform or her social media account. Now, a video from 2018 has been going viral, from an event on women's safety, where Sushmita had spoken about the importance of learning self-defence, especially for women in India. It was during this event that Sushmita also narrated the incident about someone misbehaving with her in public, and the time she realised that the boy was a minor.

Sushmita said that it's shocking how often men 'manage to misbehave'. "Six months ago at an award function, a fifteen-year-old boy misbehaved with me as he thought I wouldn't realise because of the crowd around. But, he was wrong. I grabbed his hand from my behind and I was shocked to see he was so young," she had said.

Sushmita said that she let the boy off with a warning, after teaching him a lesson. "I held him by his neck and took him for a walk. I told him if I make a hue and cry, his life would be over. He denied having misbehaved at first, but I sternly told him to acknowledge. He realized his mistake, said sorry, and promised me that it will never happen again. I didn't take any action against him because I understood that the 15-year-old was not taught that such things are an offence and not entertainment," Sushmita had added.

On the work front, Sushmita recently made an acting comeback with 'Aarya' and till recently was shooting for the second season of the same. Her eldest daughter, Renee, also made her acting debut a few months ago, in the short film 'Suttabaazi'.

'HUMILIATED BY THE LIGHT THEY PUT ME IN, SOBBED FOR 14 DAYS': BRITNEY SPEARS BREAKS SILENCE ON NEW DOCUMENTARY

American singer-songwriter Britney Spears recently revealed the most recent documentary about her life is very humiliating and it's got her in tears. The 39-year-old singer shared an Instagram post on Tuesday that features her grooving to Aerosmith's 'Crazy', in which she addressed the documentary for the first time, writing that she hasn't watched it but was "embarrassed" by the parts she did see and "cried for two weeks."

"I didn't watch the narrative however from what I saw of it I was humiliated by the light they put me in. I sobbed for about fourteen days and well... I actually cry sometimes!!!!" Spears wrote. Earlier in the post, the 'Toxic' crooner pondered how she has been judged brutally by the media during her career and said she still is "till this day."

'BLACK WIDOW' TRAILER: SCARLETT JOHANSSON AS NATASHA ROMANOFF STRUGGLES TO FACE THE PAST, DEAL WITH UNFINISHED BUSINESS

The makers of Marvel Studios' Black Widow have dropped the new trailer for the upcoming superhero film. Starring Scarlett Johansson as Natasha Romanoff and the titular role, the trailer gives a glimpse into her life before she became an Avenger and sacrificed her life to save the world. Fans also get to see her struggle to face the past and deal with unfinished business by reuniting with her family played by Florence Pugh, David Harbour and Rachel Weisz.

In the trailer of Black Widow, Natasha Romanoff played by Scarlett confronts the darker parts of her ledger when a dangerous conspiracy with ties to her past arises. Pursued by a force that will stop at nothing to bring her down, Natasha must deal with her history as a spy and the broken relationships left in her wake long before she became an Avenger.

The Avengers music throughout the trailer will give one legit goosebump and impatience for the release of the film.

Scarlett Johansson reprises her role as Natasha/Black Widow, Florence Pugh stars as Yelena, David Harbour portrays Alexei/ The Red Guardian and Rachel Weisz as Melina.

Black Widow is the first film in Phase Four of the Marvel Cinematic Universe and is directed by Cate Shortland and produced by Kevin Feige.

Earlier during an interview, Scarlett had opened up on Black Widow by stating, "It's a film very much about self-forgiveness and accepting decisions that were made for you. It's much deeper than anything we could have done earlier."

SHARON STONE RECALLS HER NEAR-DEATH EXPERIENCE AFTER 2001 CEREBRAL HAEMORRHAGE STROKE

American actor Sharon Stone, on Sunday (local time) recalled her near-death experience after she had a 2001 cerebral haemorrhage stroke. Fox News reported that the 'Basic Instinct' star, who suffered a cerebral haemorrhage stroke in 2001 was told by doctors that she might die after the bleeding didn't stop for nine days.

In an interview, the 63-year-old star, opened up about the difficult time in her life when she was convinced she was going to die. The actor recalled that "The room was so silent. When the room is so silent and no one's running around trying to fix you, that's when you realize how near death is and how serious everything is."

Stone who had drafted about her near-death experience in her new memoir, 'The Beauty of Living Twice', told that "You write about the light, the feeling of falling, seeing people who had passed."

"I found out that I wasn't the only one who'd had this kind of experience. It's so profound. And I know that scientists feel that it's a scientific thing that happens. And spiritualists believe that it's a spiritual thing."

Ajaz Khan, arrested in a drug case, tests COVID-19 positive

Actor Ajaz Khan, who was arrested by the Narcotics Control Bureau (NCB) in a drug case, has tested positive for COVID-19. According to NCB, Khan has been shifted to a hospital. The officers involved in this probe will also undergo a COVID-19 test. NCB on Saturday conducted a raid at the residence of a TV actor and seized drugs in Mumbai's Lokhandwala following the interrogation of actor Ajaz Khan who was arrested earlier this week in connection with a drug probe.

It is being reported that the actor and a woman of foreign nationality, who lived with him, left the residence minutes before the raid took place. The NCB is on the lookout for the duo.

Earlier, the agency had on Friday conducted raids in Navi Mumbai and Jogeshwari areas based on clues found after questioning of Ajaz. He has been remanded to the custody of NCB till April 3 in connection with the Batata Gang drug case. Soon after he arrived from Jaipur and landed at the Mumbai Airport on Tuesday, he was detained for questioning by the NCB Mumbai Zonal Unit and placed under arrest early the next day. According to NCB Zonal Director Sameer Wankhede, the actor's name emerged during the interrogation of a notorious drug peddler Shadab Shaikh alias Batata, who was nabbed last Thursday from the western suburbs. After detention, Khan was grilled for several hours at the NCB offices and later placed under arrest for his alleged role in the crime and links with the drug mafia. Shortly before he was taken to the NCB office, Khan who has worked in several films and participated in TV reality shows like Bigg Boss claimed he was not detained and had voluntarily come to meet the officers. A team also raided locations in Andheri west in connection with the case, the NCB officer added.

BHUMI PEDNEKAR, VICKY KAUSHAL TEST POSITIVE FOR CORONAVIRUS

Bhumi Pednekar and Vicky Kaushal have become the latest celebs to test positive for coronavirus. The actors took to their Instagram pages and shared a note on being home quarantined while being in isolation. Vicky wrote, "Despite all care and precautions, unfortunately, I have tested positive for COVID-19. Following all essential protocols, I am under home quarantine, taking medication as prescribed by my doctor. I request all those who came in contact with me to immediately get tested. Take care and stay safe."

While Bhumi penned, "I have tested positive for COVID-19. As of today, I have mild symptoms, but am feeling ok and have isolated myself. I am following the protocol given by my doctor and health professionals. If you have been in contact with me, request you to please get tested immediately."

She further wrote, "Steam, Vit - C, Food and a Happy Mood are my go-to :) Please don't take the current situation lightly, even though I followed utmost precaution and care I've contracted it. Wear a mask, keep washing your hands, maintain social distancing and be mindful of your general behaviour." Over the past few weeks, a few celebrities have tested positive for coronavirus. Actors namely Aamir Khan, Akshay Kumar, Govinda, Alia Bhatt, Kartik Aaryan and others are COVID-19 positive. Akshay has also been hospitalised in Mumbai since he has been diagnosed. Before them, Ranbir Kapoor and Sanjay Leela Bhansali were also tested positive.

'THERE ARE ADVANTAGES IN...': EKTA KAPOOR SHARES QUOTE SUMMING UP HER LIFE IN WORDS

Several celebs along with Instagram users are huge fans of Freddy Birdy and his thoughts. His thought-provoking words strike the right chord with the netizens and often his posts are reshared by many.

Recently, Freddy took to his Instagram page and shared beautiful words which read as "If you are single you will meet someone in a coffee shop and you will want to hold their hand, not just over coffee, but every single morning of your life, watch every single Netflix show, [sometimes even an Alt Balaji show] together in bed, roam without a care through supermarket aisles to buy a loaf of bread thinking you are baguette-shopping in Paris, then actually plan long romantic trips to quaint unheard of beaches off the map in Thailand or Sri Lanka, wondering if they like their eggs double-fried or the yolks runny, whether your children will look more like you or them, and then suddenly they will pick up their misspelt container of cappuccino and forever walk out of your life." Ekta reshared the post with a caption stating, "My life in words said by the eloquent @freddy_birdy ... but trust me there are advantages in getting dumped... let the ones who want to leave, leave with their misspelt cappuccino containers. Ok, bye (aao toh welcome, jao to bheed kam)."

Kapil Sharma-Ginni Chatrath name their baby boy Trishaan, here's what it means

On Sunday, Kapil Sharma finally announced the name of Ginni Chatrath and his second baby, a boy. The couple has named him Trishaan and the comedian-actor announced via his Twitter page on Neeti Mohan's request. The singer asked Kapil, "Happy birthday dearest @KapilSharmaK9 Pahji. Lots of love to you and your family Ab to baby boy ka naam bata do." To which Kapil replied, "Thank you Neeti. Hope you are taking well care of yourself. We named him Trishaan." Now, we have got to know the meaning of Trishaan and its Lord Krishna. Kapil and Ginni already have a one-year-old daughter named Anayra and the meaning of her name is Happiness.

Meanwhile, Neeti replied to Kapil's tweet by writing, "What a beautiful name TRISHAAN! Congratulations Pahji @KapilSharmaK9. Trishaan Kapil Sharma sounds so good! God bless him." Kapil thanked the singer later.

RAJASTHAN ROYALS LAUNCH NEW JERSEY, GIVE FANS SPECTACULAR STADIUM SHOW

Rajasthan Royals ensured that there was excitement in the Sawai Mansingh Stadium this season.

While the players of Rajasthan Royals will miss the joy of playing on a familiar pitch and the cheer and support of their fans at their home ground, they ensured that there was excitement in the Sawai Mansingh Stadium this season with a splendid show in partnership with Red Bull India to reveal their jersey for the 2021 season.

The result was a spectacular 3D projection and light show that enveloped the Sawai Mansingh Stadium on Saturday night as an audiovisual showcase was a live broadcast from the stadium to fans around the world and players of the Rajasthan Royals team in their bio-bubble in Mumbai. The showcase was a celebration of everything that the Royals fans hold dear to their heart- the stadium, the city of Jaipur, the Rajasthani culture and landscape - as well as a reflection of how the franchise's association with Red Bull is helping them move forward at a rapid pace, bringing out new ideas and helping the team grow. The show began with Sawai Mansingh Stadium being lit up, from the pitch to the stands. Following this, the limelight was thrown on a specially set up screen for the live show where a video montage of the stadium, city and Rajasthan landscape were interspersed with high-speed action shots of Red Bull vehicles and events. As part of the show, the Royals players themselves were 3D projected on the screen, wearing the jersey for the new season, giving fans a first-ever look at the pink and blue jersey they will wear in 2021. The show was a true tribute to Rajasthan and the Royals fans who might not be able to roar with support in the stadium while the team plays their matches this season, but is heard by each of the Rajasthan Royals players whenever there is a boundary or a wicket worthy of eliciting loud cheers.

Rishabh Pant makes BIG announcement after becoming Delhi Capitals captain

After being named as the Delhi Capitals skipper for the upcoming Indian Premier League (IPL), wicketkeeper-batsman Rishabh Pant on Wednesday said that he would try to give his 100 per cent in each game to hopefully end the franchise's title drought.

Pant uploaded a 10-second video on Twitter in which he can be heard saying: "Thank you for giving me this opportunity, I will try to give my 100 per cent each and every day. Hopefully, we will cross the line this year." He captioned the post as:

"Humbled at the opportunity to lead the franchise I've been part of for the past few years! Thank you @RickyPonting, the coaching staff, management, my teammates and the fans for your faith in me.

@DelhiCapitals: Let's do this! #IPL2021." Earlier on Wednesday, Delhi Capitals coach Ricky Ponting said that Pant deserves to lead the franchise looking at his recent performances. Ponting's remarks came as Pant was announced as Delhi Capitals skipper on Tuesday. Shreyas Iyer has been ruled out of IPL 2021 due to a shoulder injury. "Unfortunately that Shreyas will miss the tournament, but looking forward to seeing @RishabhPant17 grab his opportunity. It's well deserved for his recent performances and he's coming in with a lot of confidence. I'm convinced captaincy will make him an even better player," tweeted Ponting. Off late, Pant has been in remarkable form and he has given some match-winning performances in the series against Australia and England. Of all his performances, the ones in Brisbane (fourth Test against Australia) and Ahmedabad (fourth Test against England) stand out.

RCB SKIPPER VIRAT KOHLI, AB DE VILLIERS JOIN TEAM BUBBLE IN CHENNAI

Royal Challengers Bangalore skipper Virat Kohli on Thursday joined the team bubble in Chennai ahead of the upcoming Indian Premier League (IPL). Taking to Twitter, RCB posted a picture of Kohli and wrote, "If you thought we were done breaking the internet for the day, think again! Captain Virat Kohli has arrived in Chennai." Earlier in the day, star batsman AB de Villiers joined the team bubble. RCB posted a photo of de Villiers on Twitter and the franchise captioned the post as: "BREAKING THE INTERNET. The spaceship has landed! AB de Villiers has joined the RCB bubble in Chennai." Earlier, sources in the know of development had confirmed to ANI that Kohli left the Pune bubble created for the ODI series against England on Monday, and as a result, upon his arrival in Chennai, Kohli will undergo quarantine for seven days as per BCCI's standard operating procedures (SOPs) for the IPL amid the COVID-19 outbreak. "Kohli will be joining RCB's camp on April 1 in Chennai, then he will undergo quarantine for seven days," the source had confirmed to ANI.

MOEEN ALI BELIEVES IT'S ON EVERY PLAYER'S WISH LIST TO PLAY UNDER THIS INDIAN STAR

Chennai Super Kings newest recruit Moeen Ali says that the franchise has a calm tone to it and he also said that every player in the world wants to play under the leadership of MS Dhoni. Moeen Ali was bought by CSK for INR 7 crore in the players' auction held in February 2021. "I think what differentiates CSK from other teams is actually how they structure everything... from the squad they have to the way they do things. They look a very calm franchise that doesn't panic," the official website of CSK quoted Moeen as saying.

"I've spoken to players who have played under MS and they tell me how he improves their game. I believe a great captain does that. I think it's something on every player's wish list to play under MS. I think it's the confidence and the clarity he gives people. It's exciting," he added. Further talking about how important it is for a leader to stay calm, Moeen said: "It's very important to have strong leadership and coaches who stay calm, who take the pressure off the players as much as they can and are consistent. We are very lucky we have that."

Meg Lanning's Australian team creates massive world record beating Ricky Ponting's 2003 side

Meg Lanning-led Australian women's cricket team on Sunday created the world record for registering the most consecutive ODI wins. The side achieved the feat after defeating New Zealand (White Ferns) in the first ODI of the three-match series on Sunday here at Mount Maunganui. The record for most consecutive ODI victories was held by Ricky Ponting's team as they had registered 21 wins on the trot in 2003. But with this win over New Zealand, the Australian women's team registered its consecutive 22nd win and as a result, the side created a world record. Chasing 213, Australia got off to a bad start as the visitors lost their opening two wickets with just 37 runs on the board. Rachael Haynes (14) and Lanning (5) both failed to leave a mark with the bat. Alyssa Healy was then joined by Ellyse Perry in the middle and both batters revived the innings for Australia. Both batters put on 78 runs for the third wicket, but New Zealand staged a comeback of sorts as the side dismissed Healy (68) and Beth Mooney (12) in a span of four overs, to reduce Australia to 136/4 in the 26th over.

BABAR AZAM SETS THIS NEW RECORD, LEAVES VIRAT KOHLI AND HASHIM AMLA BEHIND

Mr consistent, Pakistan all-format skipper Babar Azam was at it again - scoring runs and breaking records - in the first ODI against South Africa at Supersport Park in Centurion. Chasing 274 runs, Pakistan didn't have a great start as they lost the wicket of opener Fakhar Zaman in just the third over. However, a 177-run partnership between Imam-ul-Haq and Babar sent Pakistan into cruise control. Babar Azam was his usual stylish self as he tore into South Africa's bowling attack. Laced with some sumptuous strokes, Babar hit 17 fours on the way to his 13th ODI century. By the virtue of the same, Babar broke the record for the fastest to reach 13 ODI tons in the 50-over format. The 26-year old broke former South African opener Hashim Amla's record, who had achieved the same number of centuries in 83 innings. While Babar completed the feat in just 76 innings. Indian skipper Virat Kohli is just behind Amla with 13 centuries in 86 innings in the one-day internationals. Owing to the 177-run partnership between the two Pakistan won the first match, albeit a late comeback from South Africa, which resulted in the match going right down to the wire but the visitors prevailed in the end. Earlier, Pakistan won the toss and put the home side into bat. Pakistan had a great start as they reduced South Africa three down inside the first 10 overs. However, a century by Rassie van der Dussen and a fifty from David Miller helped the home side to get to a competitive total of 273, which wasn't enough in the end.
