RICHA CHADHA-STARRER SHAKEELA TO HIT THEATRES THIS CHRISTMAS

The biopic of adult star Shakeela, featuring Bollywood actor Richa Chadha in the titular role, will have a theatrical release in multiple languages this Christmas. The makers announced the film's release date along with a new poster featuring Richa. Shakeela was supposed to arrive in theatres earlier this year but had to wait it out due to the coronavirus pandemic. The new poster of Shakeela shows Richa Chadha in a saree, with a gun in her hand. In the background, there are allusions to her epithet of a box office queen, along with obscene words related to her body, religious affiliation and skin colour. The film, written and directed by Indrajit Lankesh, aims to explore Shakeela's world beyond her erotic image and stardom. Calling the film his passion project, Lankesh said that Shakeela will broaden the view of aspiring actors about the world of movies.

IT WAS REPORTED THAT BHARTI SINGH HAS BEEN OUSTED FROM 'THE KAPIL SHARMA SHOW' AFTER GETTING ARRESTED IN A DRUG CASE.

SCREEN TIME DOESN'T MATTER: SARA ALI KHAN ON DOING COMEDIES WITH VARUN, RANVEER

More than her screen time, being a part of a good story is a priority for actor Sara Ali Khan, who says she is not in the film industry to "compete" with her co-stars. Khan, daughter of actors Saif Ali Khan and Amrita Singh, made her debut with Abhishek Kapoor's 2018 drama Kedarnath and followed it up with filmmaker Rohit Shetty's cop comedy Simmba, co-starring Ranveer Singh. The 25-year-old actor, whose last release was Imitiaz Ali's romance drama Love Aaj Kal, is returning to the comedy genre with David Dhawan's Coolie No 1, opposite Varun Dhawan. Women have successfully led comedies, with Hema Malini in Seeta Aur Geeta in 1972, Sridevi in the 1980s with Mr India and Chalbaaz, Karisma Kapoor, Juhi Chawla and Raveena Tandon in several David Dhawan films across the 1990s.

Injured Warner ruled out, Cummins rested for rest of limited-overs series

SYDNEY: In-form Australian opener David Warner has been ruled out of the remainder of the limited-overs series against India due to a groin injury that he suffered during the second ODI here, while top pacer Pat Cummins has been rested as part of his workload management. Warner, who scored 69 and 83 in the first two ODIs, hurt himself on Sunday while fielding at the SCG in the second one-dayer which Australia won by 51 runs to take an unassailable 2-0 lead in the series. The dashing opener has returned home to begin his rehabilitation and will be looking to get fit ahead of the opening Test at Adelaide starting December 17. "Pat and Davie are critical to our plans for the Test series," coach Justin Langer was quoted as saying by the Australian media. "Davie will work through his injury rehab and in Pat's case it is important all of our players are managed well to keep them mentally and physically fit throughout what is a challenging summer. "The priority for both is being fully prepared for one of the biggest and most important home Test series we have played in recent years, especially with World Test Championship points up for grabs."

KAREENA KAPOOR SHARES LAST PHOTO WITH TAIMUR ALI KHAN BEFORE BIDDING ADIEU TO DHARAMSHALA

A few hours ago, Kareena Kapoor Khan, Saif Ali Khan and Taimur Ali Khan made their way back to Mumbai. The family was spending their Diwali holidays in Dharamshala. Kareena's BFF Malaika Arora and her boyfriend Arjun Kapoor had also joined the Pataudi family there.

Along with Diwali, Saif and Arjun were also in Dharamshala to shoot for their upcoming film 'Bhoot Police'. They left after the shoot there wrapped up.

Kareena Kapoor Khan, who has become an avid Instagram user, shared her final pictures from the trip as they headed home. In one of the photos, she also gave a glimpse of her son Taimur Ali Khan. Little Tim posed (or did not) with Saif and Kareena.

While Saif and Kareena stood close for the photo, Taimur was seen away and in a rather playful mood. He pulled his father Saif's sweater while being papped.

Taimur, on the other hand, wore a black full-sleeved t-shirt with khaki pants. He also had a woolen cap on him.

In another photo, Kareena was seen with the jacket off, while Saif had put on a grey hoodie. Bebo shared the image with the staff of the place they were staying at. Everybody except the couple could be seen in masks in the photo.

Kareena Kapoor Khan is currently pregnant. Her baby is expected to arrive in the early months of 2021. The baby would be their second child after Taimur.

Eijaz Khan opens up about being molested, Nikki Tamboli reveals she was kidnapped during teenage years

'Bigg Boss 14' takes an emotional turn on Monday night - the last 'Somvaar' on the show. All contestants are set to reveal some horrific experiences of their lives.

Eijaz Khan, who was declared the 'villain' of the house, opened up about being molested at a young age. On the other hand, Nikki Tamboli revealed that she was kidnapped while a teenager.

According to 'The Khabri', Eijaz Khan spoke about being molested as a child. He said that it caused a fear of physical touch in him. "Mujhe touch se problem hai (I am afraid of physical touch)," he reportedly said.

Eijaz also reportedly mentioned, "Main sharminda nahi hoon kyuki woh meri galti nahi thi (I am not ashamed because it wasn't my fault)." The actor also apologized to his father, who probably did not know about the incident before the show airs. Kavita Kaushik, who had started having differences with Eijaz, asked the actor if she could give him a hug. On getting his approval, she broke into a warm embrace, before revealing that she too was molested by a teacher in school. On the other hand, Nikki was believed to have spoken about being kidnapped as a teenager. Tamboli revealed that at the age of 19, she was kidnapped during an international modelling assignment. Jasmin Bhasin also got teary-eyed as she spilled, "Main jin bhi auditions pe gayi, baar baar reject hoti thi hamesha (I would always be rejected in auditions)." "Main haar maan gayi thi, ke shayad main kuch kar hi nahi sakti, main iss layak hi nahi hoon (I had given up, thinking that I am worthless)," she added in a promo from 'Bigg Boss 14'. Before making the revelations, Jasmin was heard asking Aly if his feelings for her would change if she spills something.

PENINSULA CANNOT MATCH UP TO THE MAGIC OF TRAIN TO BUSAN

It has been four years since Train to Busan, and Yeon Sang-ho comes up with yet another signature zombie outing. We see a totally devastated South Korea with a few survivors running helter-skelter to save themselves from the overrunning zombie attacks. The country looks shattered with its once-ultra-modern cities reduced to ruins. In this edition, Incheon is the city being destroyed.

The port city is now an urban graveyard of destroyed bridges, buildings and modes of transport. The challenge here is to survive the infestation of zombies and eventually have enough brawn to overcome the greedy batches of antagonists looking to loot, pillage and fashion cheap thrills.

Four Korean refugees in Hong Kong are entrusted with the task of retrieving a truck load of dollars, but a task that seems easy under the guise of darkness (because zombies can't see at night) becomes fraught with unheralded risks, including the menace of a rogue outfit of mercenaries known as Unit 361.

The zombies here are not as much of a threat as the desperado mercenaries spearheading a Mad Max like base with unarmed humans as prey for their 'Hunter Games'. A large part of the narrative is devoted to chase sequences in fortified abandoned vehicles. The heavy use of CGI creates a whole lot of visual thrills but it's not enough to give this regurgitated spinoff, which borrows its many ideas from a range of end of the world scenarios, a fresh new appeal. While the thrills here don't have the power and overwhelming appeal of those experienced in Train to Busan, they nevertheless fulfill the role of delivering an adrenaline rush just when the momentum appears to be sliding off.

Hollywood influences are clearly visible here and that in fact takes a lot away from the genuine artistry of the Korean original. While the opening sequence sets-up well for an intriguing karma-slanted endplay, the middle section appears rather flaccid and directionless. This one is certainly not as tense an experience as Train to Busan, yet it's not without its fair share of virtues.

Gauahar Khan-Zaid Darbar to tie the knot on THIS date; announce with stunning pre-wedding photoshoot

After several rumours and months of speculation, Gauahar Khan has finally announced her wedding date with fiancé Zaid Darbar. Taking to her Instagram account, Gauahar announced that the couple will tie the knot on December 25 in an intimate ceremony with close friends and family. Along with the announcement, Gauahar also posted two pictures with Zaid from their pre-wedding photoshoot.

In an interview with Hindustan Times, Gauahar revealed that Zaid, son of music director Ismail Darbar, proposed to her in July. She said, "I was averse to the idea of being with anyone when I met him. Yet, I felt this was something different because I had never met someone like him. I felt this is my kind of human being. He is like me in many ways in thoughts, behaviour, history, and characteristics. So, I knew we would have a great friendship. We didn't have a courtship. I met him, we hit it off and he didn't think he would propose to someone, marriage was not on his mind. When he asked me, it wasn't planned. It was in a flow and after meeting me, in literally over a month, he proposed to me. There were no second thoughts."

Speaking about what she loves the most about Zaid is that she can be a goofball with him.

She said, "I had to go to Pune right after he proposed and I got to know much better over the phone than meeting. I had a deeper understanding of life during the pandemic. What got further emphasised is that time with family and loved ones matters the most. To meet a man who believed the same, made me think he is my kind of person." She said, "I can be a goofball with him and also find the maturity and balance in the relationship. The age difference isn't much and it doesn't bother me."

PRIYANKA CHOPRA JONAS BEGINS SHOOTING FOR 'TEXT FOR YOU' CO-STARRING CELINE DION, SAM HEUGHAN

Actress Priyanka Chopra Jonas has started working on her upcoming Hollywood romantic drama, tentatively titled 'Text For You', co-starring Grammy-winner Celine Dion and actor Sam Heughan.

Priyanka posted a picture on Instagram stories, of a chair that has "Text for you" written on it. The actress captioned the image: "It begins #textforyou."

Earlier, giving her fans on how she was prepping for her upcoming film, Priyanka had shared a collage of photos of herself on Instagram Stories sporting a full face mask. PeeCee shared several pictures giving fans a glimpse of her prep mode, in which she could be seen getting her hair and nails done before she begins work. The photographs showed Priyanka wearing a mask while getting a manicure. Her hair was seen covered in plastic sheets, hinting at new hair colour. "Prep... starting text for you on Friday," she wrote with the photos. Written and directed by Jim Strouse, the film is an English remake of the German-language film "SMS Fur Dich", based on Sofie Cramer's novel. According to the storyline, Priyanka's character is a heartbroken woman who has just lost her fiancé. In her attempt to send constant messages to her fiancé's old number, she will connect with a man across town suffering from a similar heartbreak.

Celine Dion's music in the film aims at connecting the two and give them the courage to take a second shot at love. Priyanka's co-star in the film is Sam Heughan, who is best known for his role as an actor and producer in the hit series "Outlander".

He was recently seen in the Vin Diesel-starrer comic-book flick "Bloodshot" and in the action-comedy "The Spy Who Dumped Me", co-starring Mila Kunis, Kate McKinnon, Justin Theroux and Gillian Anderson.

TRENDING: WHEN YAMI GAUTAM RECEIVED UNEXPECTED REACTION FROM PARENTS FOR 'VICKY DONOR' SCRIPT

Back in 2012, actor Yami Gautam featured in a film which broke stereotypes. The movie in question is Ayushmann Khurrana's debut film 'Vicky Donor', directed by Shoojit Sircar. The film, produced by John Abraham, was about a guy who donates sperms to help other couples.

Yami, who is now starring in 'Bhoot Police' opposite Saif Ali Khan, Arjun Kapoor and Jacqueline Fernandez, had spoken about how she was just auditioning everywhere at that point in time. The actress said it was important because she had no godfather backing her. "That was a phase when I was auditioning in full swing. At that point of time, I also had the opportunity of a very conventional launch. I was absolutely on my own; every work that I was doing was my stepping stone. There was nobody there to back me," she said at India Today Conclave 2018.

'Durgamati' song 'Baras Baras': All about Bhumi Pednekar's love story with Karan Kapadia

Bhumi Pednekar's upcoming movie 'Durgamati's new song has been unveiled. The track, crooned by B Praak, is all about her love story with 'Blank' actor Karan Kapadia. For the uninformed, Kapadia is Twinkle Khanna's nephew. In the song, Bhumi's character falls in love with Karan's. She plays a government official while he is seen as the local revolutionary for people. She initiates the relationship with a sweet gesture - leaving a gift at his doorstep, only to meet him outside the house. Jisshu Sengupta, last seen in 'Sadak 2', plays the role of Karan's friend. The love between Bhumi and Karan blooms and ends up in them getting engaged to one another.

IT'S A PROBLEM OF PLENTY IN NETFLIX' SERIES MISMATCHED

A summer in Jaipur! The setting is an app-coding course, and our two teen protagonists come looking for their goals – a path-breaking idea for her, a future wife for him! The six episodes of Mismatched are peppered with everything else – broken families, obsession with fair skin, chasing one's dreams, pushing boundaries to coming out! What all can transpire at an 'old' school that brings this motley crowd together! Well, not to miss, they are quite a bunch. Dimple not Damsel: a dark complexioned, 'chashmish' to lead the brigade; Rishi Singh Shekhawat: a rather royal with seemingly 'perfect' family; Harsh: an American born confused desi (ABCD), Simran: a social media diva hiding her broken heart behind her air-brushed shots to Zeenat Karim: a demure widow looking for her second innings.

The campus is an archetypical setting – Kaku jaan doling out sweet lassis, just the teacher one hopes to have – dashing, tough, yet there to guide and mentor one to reach one's true potential.

Netflix's Mismatched is based on Sandhya Menon's When Dimple

Met Rishi. What works for the first season is that one builds a soft corner for the characters, and in flashes one feels their pain. The campus flavour is just right. Prajakta Koli is able to transform her YouTuber persona pretty well in the web series space, Rohit Saraf is earnest, Ranvijay holds his ground as does Vidya Malavadi. It's not a nuanced act that we get to see. But then have heart — here the climax is all about winning a game, so things are still pre-teenish. What's jarring is that too much is packed in too less. To pick up a theme – one would be spoiled for a choice – gaming world, rich-poor divide, generation gap, disability, broken homes, relationships sacrificed at the altar of getting ahead to owning up to one's sexuality...phew. And, then there's this hero, who is obsessed with Bollywood. While the last episode sets the tone for the season second, that we are not dying for it, says it all. A passable affair this one is.

'ATRANGI RE' DUO DHANUSH-SARA ALI KHAN SWEAT IT OUT AT GYM WITH 'THALAIVA'

Dhanush and Sara Ali Khan are shooting for Aanand L Rai's Atrangi Re in full swing. The actors play the leading roles in the film along with Akshay Kumar. Sara has been juggling between the shoot of Atrangi Re and promotions of her upcoming film, Coolie No 1. Dhanush and Sara have also been spending time with each other like going for a gym session together. The Kedamath actor recently took to her Instagram story and shared a video of the same.

In the video, both are seen getting trained by their trainer and are religiously working out.

They are joined by none other than Thalaiva. Not really! The video has Rajinikanth's popular song 'Marana Mass' from his film Petta on the backdrop. Atrangi Re went on floors on March 1, this year but in a few days, the production was stalled due to the coronavirus pandemic. It was just a couple of months back, the shooting was resumed and Sara has been visiting Tamil Nadu for it. The romantic movie has been eyeing for a Valentine's Day 2021 release. A recent report on Mumbai Mirror opened up about the plotline of the film. Sara is expected to play a double role in Atrangi Re. Based in Bihar and Madurai, her character would romance both Dhanush and Akshay. The film is expected to bring in a tinge of humour. This is the first outing of Sara with Aanand, Akshay and Dhanush on the big screen.

NATIONAL ORGAN DONATION DAY: RANBIR KAPOOR PLEDGES ORGANS; ALIA BHATT RAISES AWARENESS ON TOPIC

In a recent piece of news, it has been revealed that actor Ranbir Kapoor, who lost his father Rishi Kapoor earlier this year, has pledged to donate his organs. On National Organ Donation Day, November 27, the 'Rockstar' actor made the announcement at an event organised by Amar Gandhi Foundation. "Pledge and donate my organs, I hope that by me doing this it will make a difference to one person or two person's lives, and it keeps going forward and it will make a difference, so please do consider pledging your organs," Ranbir said. Interestingly Alia Bhatt also said, "It is important to make people aware of the process behind it. I think it is important to come and talk about the health issues and Amar Gandhi Foundation and Organ donation awareness drive make people aware of the prospects of their organ donation, alive or post-death." Interestingly, Ranbir's late father Rishi had also pledged his organs in March 2014. Earlier this year, megastar Amitabh Bachchan too had revealed that he is a pledged organ donor and wore the 'ribbon of its sanctity' on popular game show Kaun Banega Crorepati, which he hosts. Among other celebrities who are pledged donors are Aishwarya Rai Bachchan, Arjun Mathur, Priyanka Chopra, Aamir Khan, R Madhavan to name a few.

IS BHARTI SINGH NO MORE A PART OF 'THE KAPIL SHARMA SHOW'? KIKU SHARDA RESPONDS

Soon after Bharti Singh was granted bail after getting arrested for the possession of drugs, reports were making the rounds that the comedienne will no more be a part of The Kapil Sharma Show. She also didn't make it to the sets for the shooting of the recent episodes, which fuelled the rumours. It was also said that the channel wants Bharti to be out of the show and Kapil Sharma is against the decision. During an interaction with ETimes, Kiku Sharda, who is also a part of The Kapil Sharma Show was asked about these rumours. He stated, "We shot yesterday, and she wasn't there at the shoot. But that's quite normal as she doesn't shoot with us for every episode." Kiku shared further details by saying, "In fact, I haven't heard of any talk of her not being a part of the show. She just wasn't there yesterday at the shoot and that's about it."

Bharti Singh and husband Haarsh Limbachiya who were arrested by the Narcotics Control Bureau (NCB) for alleged possession of cannabis, were on November 22 sent to judicial custody till December 4 by a Mumbai Court. Singh was held on November 21 while Limbachiya was arrested the very next day.

The NCB had raided the production office and house of comedian Bharti Singh and recovered 86.5 grams of ganja (cannabis) from both places.

A special (Narcotics) court in Mumbai on November 23 granted bail to Bharti and Haarsh in connection with a drugs case. "Both of them have been granted bail by the court on furnishing a bail bond of Rs 15,000 each. No reply was filed by the NCB yet. A notice was issued to them on Sunday itself," advocate Ayaz Khan, Singh's lawyer had told IANS.

RUBINA DILAIK REVEALS ABHINAV SHUKLA AND SHE WERE ON VERGE OF GETTING DIVORCED

Among many other things, 'Big Boss 14' will be remembered for how Rubina Dilaik and her husband Abhinav Shukla constantly stood for one another. While the world has been witnessing them as one another's strongest supporters, there was a time when the couple was considering divorce. Rubina was heard talking about it in the recent promo of 'Big Boss 14' which aired on Voot. She spoke about how the couple was ready to file for divorce but gave their marriage another chance by signing up for 'Big Boss 14' as husband and wife. Rubina shared that the show brought her closer to Abhinav, and that if it wasn't for 'Big Boss 14' then her marriage would be in shackles. The 'Shakti Astitva Ke Ehsas Ki' actor went on to talk about how the couple had given time to sort out their issues by November. Fans are in complete shock after hearing that the couple who even host Salman Khan praised, was actually thinking about separating from one another. They also went on to praise the show for saving their relationship.

KANGANA RANAUT CALLS HRITHIK ROSHAN, ADITYA PANCHOLI 'KIND SOULS' AFTER MUMBAI MAYOR'S STATEMENT

Kangana Ranaut got relief in demolition case against Brihanmumbai Municipal Corporation on November 27. Soon after, Mumbai mayor Kishori Pednekar expressed her disappointment through a press conference. News wire agency ANI shared a video of the mayor talking about the case and Kangana. She said, "Everyone is surprised that an actress who lives in Himachal, comes here and calls our Mumbai PoK... such 'do takke ke log' want to make Courts arena for political rivalry, it's wrong." Reacting to the same, Kangana called her reported ex-boyfriends Hrithik Roshan and Aditya Pancholi 'kind souls'. She said that the legal cases, abuses, insults, name calling from Maharashtra Government has made her feel that way. The actress tweeted, "The amount of legal cases, abuses, insults, name calling I faced from Maharashtra government in these few months make Bollywood mafia and people like Aaditya Pancholi and Hrithik Roshan seem like kind souls .... I wonder what is it about me that rattle people so much."

JACQUELINE FERNANDEZ JOINS AKSHAY KUMAR IN 'BACHCHAN PANDEY'

A new member has joined the cast of Akshay Kumar starrer Bachchan Pandey. After Kriti Sanon and Arshad Warsi, the makers of the film have roped in Jacqueline Fernandez for a pivotal role. This will be Akshay and Jacqueline's fourth outing after Housefull 2, Brothers and Housefull 4. Now Fernandez has shared her excitement on reuniting with producer Sajid Nadiadwala and Akshay once again on the big screen. In a statement, Jacqueline stated, "I was very new to the industry when I did the 'Dhanno' song in Housefull for Nadiadwala and our bond and friendship goes way back then. I am elated to be back working with him and Bachchan Pandey will mark our eighth film together after Judwaa and Housefull series. I can't wait to reunite with Akshay once again. It's a crazy mad ride always with him and I am sure we will have a blast together."

The Dishoom actor also revealed that she will kickstart the shoot in January 2021. Jacqueline said, "I'm looking forward to beginning the shoot in January with them. I can't spill the beans on my character yet but I can tell you it's a totally different avatar. This film will be an altogether different experience for us as we would be shooting in the new normal owing to the on-going pandemic but as we say the show must go on. With the precautions and norms for Covid-19 which would be taken care of, I am extremely excited to be at my 'Happy Place' with Sajid, Akshay and have a gala time." She added, "I have just finished shooting for a film while the other one is going on and I'm set to roll for Bachchan Pandey soon post which I'll be back with Nadiadwala directing Salman Khan and myself for Kick 2."

Late Wajid Khan's wife alleges her in-laws are causing hindrance even for children's due inheritance

Kamalrukh Khan, who is the wife of late music composer Wajid Khan, has alleged that every day in the house without him is a fight with the in-laws. While she recently spoke about the scare tactics being used to get her to convert to Islam, Khan has now stated that they are being a hindrance in the children's due inheritance too. While talking to Times of India, Kamalrukh alleged that she has been facing injustice at the hands of her in-laws. She shared, "Life has brought me to a point where I need to fight for my children's due inheritance as his family has usurped his assets post Wajid's death. I am both father and mother to them, and in practical matters, always have been!" Kamalrukh said that Wajid's marital support was their source of earning. "My daughter is 16 years and my son is 9 years. I have to pay for their education and our upkeep. I work as a clinical hypnotherapist and our primary source of earning has been Wajid's marital support," she mentioned.

Talking about fighting for everything, Khan added, "If that too is being snatched away (by those who haven't bothered to keep in touch with me or my children for the past 7-8 years, on such unfair grounds, I need to fight back on every front." "Also my reasons for speaking out is tied to an inherent sense of justice. No woman should have to face what I have faced during these 17 years of marriage," she said. In the same interview, Kamalrukh alleged that Wajid's family interfered in the couple's matters more than what was healthy. She said that his mother would constantly ask him to re-marry since they were not married as per the Muslim law. Khan said that it was the reason that Wajid could never be the husband she deserved. She also went on to allege that the family would try and scare her by stating that Wajid would divorce her if she didn't convert to Islam. The couple, despite it all, did not get divorced.

IT'S WORK WHICH HAS GOT ME WORK, NOT NEPOTISM: SANJAY KAPOOR ON 'FABULOUS LIVES OF BOLLYWOOD WIVES'

Karan Johar's latest show 'The Fabulous Lives of Bollywood Wives' has addressed the hot topic - nepotism. In the show, this time, Sanjay Kapoor, who was seen in Johar's 'Lust Stories', directed by Dibakar Banerjee, spoke about his viewpoint on nepotism.

The actor was talking to his wife Maheep Kapoor, who is one of the leads on 'The Fabulous Lives of Bollywood Wives'. Sanjay, who is the brother of successful producer Boney Kapoor and popular actor Anil Kapoor, said that it took him 25 years for nepotism to actually work. He said, "It took me twenty-five years for finally this nepotism to work. I have known Karan for nearly 30 years. But finally, I am happy it's work which has got me work, not nepotism." Sanjay stressed that having contacts isn't everything. "People need to understand that, otherwise I would have been the busiest actor. With the amount of people I know, I would have been doing the best of work," he was heard saying on the show. He also declared that accusing someone of nepotism is unfair. "To dilute anybody's work or career by saying it happened because of nepotism, it is not fair," the actor said. Nepotism and Karan Johar have gone a long way. Kangana Ranaut had first spoken about the word on 'Koffee with Karan', where she called Johar the 'flagbearer of nepotism'. Ever since, they both have exchanged jibes at each other in the name of nepotism. More recently, Kangana again brought up the topic after actor Sushant Singh Rajput's demise. She claimed that due to nepotism, actors who are outsiders, tend to struggle in the industry and are often sidelined.

Jasmin Bhasin reveals she tried to end her life on facing rejection

After Rubina Dilaik's shocking announcement on divorce, Jasmin Bhasin gave her fans a rude shock by stating that she once attempted suicide. The 'Naagin' actress shared that there was a time in her life when she could not handle rejection. Jasmin, who believed it was difficult to open about the situation on 'Bigg Boss 14' stage, went for Aly Goni's approval. After talking to him and pleading to him to not change his viewpoint about her, Jasmin spilled the beans. "Main jin bhi auditions pe gayi, baar baar reject hoti thi hamesha (I would always be rejected in auditions)," she said. The actress added, "Main haar maan gayi thi, ke shayad main kuch kar hi nahi sakti, main iss layak hi nahi hoon (I had given up, thinking that I am worthless)." Jasmin Bhasin then revealed that she tried to overdose on medicines as an attempt to end the suffering. Bhasin then revealed that luckily she recovered. Soon after, she regretted the decision of trying to take her own life. Jasmin Bhasin has been shown as a sensitive contestant on the show. She used to often break into tears, at least till Aly came in the house. After his entry, Jasmin found a support system in him and has been able to face everything head-on. Jasmin had recently gotten into an argument with Rubina Dilaik, who shared that she and Abhinav Shukla were going to file for divorce if 'Bigg Boss 14' did not happen. She revealed that they gave one another time till November, and that the show saved their marriage. However, neither Jasmin nor Rubina won the task. Eijaz Khan, who said he was molested at a very young age, won the task. He also received a warm embrace from his nemesis Kavita Kaushik.

I'm married to Pavitra Punia, she cheated on me four times: Hotelier Sumit Maheshwari

A hotelier named Sumit Maheshwari has gone on record to declare that he is married to Pavitra Punia. He also went ahead and stated that the ex-Bigg Boss 14 contestant, who was evicted from the show on Sunday, during 'Weekend Ka Vaar' with Salman Khan, had already cheated on him four times. In an interview with Fifafooz's Rahul Bhoj, Sumit had shared that he is still married to him. For the uninformed, Pavitra has never acknowledged the marriage. Punia, however, had hinted on the show that she was engaged and had a fiance. Pavitra opened up to Eijaz Khan, who had fallen for her inside the 'Bigg Boss 14' house and wanted to take her to meet his father. "Kheech ke lekar jaaunga mere abba se milaane, kyunki mujhe bahut time baad koi pasand aayi hai (I'll make you meet my father because I have liked a girl after a long time)," he was heard saying. Meanwhile, Sumit alleged that Pavitra had already cheated on him four times before. "Paras Chhabra, Pratik Sehajpal and one more guy who is not from the industry," said Maheshwari, while talking about the guys she cheated on him with. Co-incidentally, Paras had previously gone on record to state that Pavitra is married and he did not know about it at the time of them dating. He had stated that he regrets being in a relationship with her. Sumit, during his interview, said that he forgave Pavitra every time, but cannot this time, after she flirted with Eijaz on 'Bigg Boss 14'. Maheshwari made it clear that Pavitra could continue dating Eijaz once she divorces him.

Where is the sportsmanship gone?

KL RAHUL CRITICISED ON HIS REMARKS ON DAVID WARNER'S INJURY

Australia suffered a big blow after their batsman David Warner was ruled out of the remaining white-ball matches against India after he picked up an injury during the second ODI.

Warner injured himself while fielding and was seen limping off the ground in pain. He will be missing the third and final ODI as well as the three-match T20I series. So when India batsman KL Rahul was asked to share his views on the left-hander's injury during the post-match press conference, the wicket-keeper batsman said on a lighter note that it will be good for Team India if the Aussie batsman is out for a long time. "We don't know how bad his injury is. It would be nicer if he gets injured for a long time. One of their main batsmen. It is not nice to wish it for anyone but it would be good for the team. If his injury takes a long time, it would be good for our team," Rahul had said in the virtual presser.

His comments, however, did not go down well with several fans who criticised the wicketkeeper-batsman for his remarks. Some also pointed out the lack of sportsman spirit in Rahul's comments. As for Warner, he was in tremendous form in the first two ODIs and notched up successive half-centuries. He scored 69 runs in the first which Australia won by 66 runs and later smashed 83 runs in the second, which Australia won by 51 runs.

His injury comes as a huge setback for the hosts, but the Australia unit will be hoping the prolific opener can return for the much-awaited Border-Gavaskar Trophy from December 17.

'WHEN VIRAT KOHLI COMES OUT TO BAT, JUST WAKE ME UP': MICHAEL VAUGHAN ON HIS SON'S LOVE FOR INDIAN SKIPPER

Be it cause of love or hate, Indian skipper Virat Kohli has a huge following amongst the most well-known cricketers of his generation. While Indians do shower praises on the captain, he is even a favourite and crowd puller in other countries, especially amongst youngsters. Among such fans is former England captain Michael Vaughan's son. He talked about the influence Kohli has on youngsters and revealed that his son is a big fan of the man.

"My little boy is a little player and all he does is, always says to me, when Virat comes out to bat, just wake me up. As soon as Virat goes out getting caught at midwicket, he goes back inside to do something else. He's that powerful with the kids. When you see shots like that fly off the middle of the bat without any real effort or doesn't seem like any much effort going into the stroke - it's just flying into the stands. He's a special player, he's an absolute genius," Vaughan told Cricbuzz.

As for Kohli, he played a scintillating 89-run innings against Australia in the 2nd ODI during India's 390-run chase in Sydney. However, after Kohli's departure, the hopes of India winning were shunned. Kohli scored four fifties in 8 ODIs in 2020 - but has not been able to convert it into a hundred. Talking about the batsman's missed hundreds, Vaughan said that there is no reason for the Indian fans or anyone to worry about. Vaughan stated that Kohli is still in supreme form.

"The one thing I don't worry about with Virat Kohli is his batting. There is no concern about his batting whatsoever. He is a wonderful player, he's the best of the era across the formats, there are no doubts about that," Vaughan said. "I worry about those three Tests that India have without him. I don't see India being able to win those Tests without the Virat Kohli factor. He is that important for that Test team. His 100s will come. Once he gets one, probably he would get 3-or-4 together, he's that good," he added.

'EXPLOITED ME FOR 10 YEARS': WOMAN ACCUSES PAKISTAN CAPTAIN BABAR AZAM OF SEXUAL ABUSE

Pakistan cricket team's on and off the field problems are not looking to get sorted anytime soon. In a shocking revelation, a Pakistani woman has accused their national team captain Babar Azam of sexually exploiting her for 10 years and gave false promise of marriage.

In an explosive press conference held on Saturday, the said woman revealed that they were school friends and said that she always backed Babar and helped him financially too in his tough times.

According to her, Babar had proposed her for marriage in 2010 and eloped for a court wedding the next year. But Babar, after rising to fame in 2012 - leading Pakistan in U-19 World Cup and getting a national call-up, changed his mind.

Elaborating further, the woman said that Babar had threatened to kill her when she went to the police, accusing him of physically assaulting her. The woman also claimed that she paid for Babar's expenses.

It remains to be seen what action Pakistan Cricket Board (PCB) takes after these shocking disclosures as Babar is currently in New Zealand with the cricket team.

Virat Kohli crosses 12000 ODI runs, breaks Sachin Tendulkar's record to become fastest to landmark

Virat Kohli created history in the third ODI against Australia at the Manuka Oval in Canberra as he went past 12000 runs in grand style. Virat Kohli achieved the feat in his 242nd innings, which is 58 innings quicker than Sachin Tendulkar. Tendulkar had achieved the record of 12000 runs in his 300th ODI innings but Virat Kohli's brilliance is such that he has managed to cross 12000 in under 250 innings and it is a testament to his average in ODIs currently, which is just under 60. Virat Kohli's landmark of 12000 runs is another addition to his massive compilation of records.

Shah Rukh Khan's Knight Riders invests in USA's Major League Cricket

The Knight Riders group, co-owned by Bollywood superstar Shah Rukh Khan, have decided to invest in USA's multi-million dollar T20 tournament which is currently in the works, named Major League Cricket. "American Cricket Enterprises is delighted to announce that the Knight Riders Group, owners of the Kolkata Knight Riders (KKR) and Trinbago Knight Riders (TKR), has agreed to a significant long-term investment in the future of American cricket as they become stakeholders in Major League Cricket," a press release sent on Tuesday said. The Knight Riders group currently own two T20 franchises - the two-time Indian Premier League (IPL) champions Kolkata Knight Riders and four-time Caribbean Premier League champions Trinbago Knight Riders. "For several years now, we have been expanding the Knight Riders brand globally and closely watching the potential for T20 cricket in the USA. We are convinced that Major League Cricket has all the pieces in place to execute on its plans and we look forward to making our partnership an enormous success in the coming years," KKR co-owner Shah Rukh Khan was quoted as saying in the press release.

"We feel fortunate to have been consistently recognized as one of the best franchises in T20 cricket and have become one of the fastest growing sports brands in the world. As T20 cricket expands internationally, we are flattered by the regular inbound requests to play a major role in growing the sport abroad," Mr. Venky Mysore, the CEO of KKR and Red Chillies Entertainment said.

Rohit's injury situation required clear communication between Coach, Selectors and Physio: Gambhir

Former Indian cricketer Gautam Gambhir has opined that opening batsman Rohit Sharma's injury fiasco could have been handled better by the Board of Control for Cricket in India (BCCI).

Gambhir said that the situation required a clear communication between team India head coach, Ravi Shastri, Chairman of selectors, Sunil Joshi and the Indian physio.

Rohit, even after playing the last three games for Mumbai Indians in the IPL, was rested from the limited-overs leg of the Australia tour and now is set to miss the first two Tests as well.

Skipper Virat Kohli too mentioned that there was a lack of clarity regarding his injury and it would have been better for him had he flown to Australia with the rest of the squad.

Rohit is now recovering at the National Cricket Academy in Bengaluru and next assessment will take place on December 11. Speaking on Star Sports show Cricket Connected, talking about the whole episode Gambhir said, "The Rohit Sharma situation could've been handled pretty easily since there wasn't any need for too many people to get involved. Only the head physio, head coach and chairman of selectors were to be involved in the injury case. Had there been clear communication with the 3, it would've been enough. Of course, Virat Kohli were to get updated at every step through Ravi Shastri."

Former cricketer VVS Laxman too was of the same view, given the series is being held in the middle of a pandemic and strict quarantine regulations are being followed, especially in Australia.

"Rohit Sharma is a very valuable player in Test matches. So I would've kept him in the chain, subject to fitness, would've definitely kept him in the picture. Secondly, you could've sent him with the team after that, keeping the quarantine rules in mind. Because there is a 14-day quarantine, in the soft quarantine since you have been in the bubble in UAE. Then you move to another bubble [in Australia]. In soft quarantine, you can practice, train with teammates, hit the gym. "But when you're taking a commercial flight to Australia, you won't be allowed to go out of your room and mingle and come in contact with people. So, I believe, the BCCI should've thought of this in hindsight," Laxman said on the show.

THISARA PERERA BLASTS 97* AND BREAKS THIS RECORD AS JAFFNA PUMMEL DAMBULLA IN LPL

It seems curators in Sri Lanka are producing belters one after another as after Russell's assault against Gladiators, a couple of days ago, Thisara Perera came to the party in the Lanka Premier League (LPL). In the first of the two games on Monday, Dambulla Viking skipper Dasun Shanaka won the toss and chose to bowl at Mahinda Rajapaksa International Stadium, Hambantota. Shanaka's decision was proving to be the right one till the first half of the Jaffna Stallions' innings as his team got them reeling at 36-4 within the powerplay, but what followed was an exhibition of extraordinary hitting from Thisara Perera. The swashbuckling left-hander came in the 9th over when his team was struggling at 64-5 in the 9th over. But their struggle ended then and there and transferred it to the Viking, who with the variety in their bowling attack had put breaks on the Stallions.

But, Perera had other plans as made some sort of a statement by ripping the Viking bowling attack apart. Stallions amassed 147 runs in the last 10 overs of their innings, Perera accounted for 94 of them. Perera, who like many other big hitters in the world has become a reason of frustration for many people with his inconsistency, showed why he is such a dangerous player when he is in the mood. Perera kept punishing the Viking bowlers as they kept missing yorkers and execution of their bowling plans. Viking were still not in a bad position with Stallions at 172-7 in 18 overs.

After Gautam Gambhir slams Virat Kohli's captaincy, Harbhajan Singh comes in support of Indian skipper

After being criticised by many including former India opener Gautam Gambhir for the country's loss in the ODI series against Australia at the Sydney Cricket Ground (SCG) on Sunday (November 30), Harbhajan Singh has now come in support of Virat Kohli. The Aussies defeated India by 51 runs in second ODI and the loss has got Indian skipper under the scanner and Gambhir slammed him for his captaincy. "I can't understand the captaincy, to be honest. We kept talking about how important it was to take wickets upfront if you have to stop this kind of batting line-up and then you make your premier bowler bowl two overs," Gautam Gambhir said in a video posted on ESPNCricinfo. However, veteran off-spinner Harbhajan Singh has come in support of underfire Kohli. Bhajji stated there is 'no pressure with captaincy on Kohli'. He believes others need to support Kohli in mammoth run-chases. "I don't think Kohli is under any kind of pressure with captaincy, don't think it's a burden for him. I think he enjoys those challenges, he is a leader, who leads from the front and sets an example for the team to do the needful. For the team to win games," Harbhajan told India Today.

'Ineffectiveness with the ball, poor fielding cost us': Kohli after loss to Australia in 2nd ODI

Indian skipper Virat Kohli was critical of his team's bowling and fielding effort after his side's loss to Australia by 51 runs in the 2nd One-day international in Sydney. Australia scored 389 runs batting first with their all top five batsmen scoring fifties and Steve Smith getting another century off 62 balls, identical with the first one. Kohli said, "They completely outplayed us. We were not that effective with the ball, just didn't hit the areas we wanted to, consistently. They have a pretty strong batting line-up, they know these conditions and the pitches and the angles of the fields very well. We needed to hit one area consistently and we didn't. "Looking at the scorecard, we made 340 and still lost by 50. The chase always felt bit too steep, and one or two wickets here and there was taking the run-rate upwards of 12s and 13s meant we had to keep hitting." From the outset, it looked like a repeat telecast of the first game as the Australian openers David Warner and Aaron Finch stitched another 100-plus opening partnership, their 5th in the ODIs. Then Steve Smith took charge, smashed an identical 62-ball century. After that, Marnus Labuschagne and Glenn Maxwell too hit half-centuries. In between, India didn't take their chances as they dropped a couple of catches, while Australia grabbed most of their catches and even held on to a couple of stunners. Talking about the difference in bowling and fielding, Kohli said, "Catches win you games and that two chances that they grabbed on to, [were] probably the defining moments. A 90-odd run partnership between me and Shreyas (Iyer), if that was 130-140 then the game is closer, even my catch, if me and KL were there till 40-41st over, the game could have been a lot different."
