KAREENA KAPOOR LAUNCHES HER BOOK ‘PREGNANCY BIBLE’

MUMBAI, (IANS) Kareena Kapoor Khan took to social media on Friday to announce the launch of her book “Pregnancy Bible”. She posted a video from her kitchen asking: “What’s been baking?” She then pulled out a copy of her book from the microwave, and announced: “This is what’s been baking.” Recalling her journey as an author, the actress wrote on her Instagram page: “This has been quite the journey... both my pregnancies and writing my Pregnancy Bible. There were good days and bad days; some days I was raring to go to work and others where I struggled to get out of bed. This book is a very personal account of what I experienced both physically and emotionally through both my pregnancies.” Kareena had announced conceiving her book “Pregnancy Bible” on Taimur’s birthday in 2020.

KRITI KHARBANDA, VIKRANT MASSEY SHARE EXCITEMENT ABOUT ‘14 PHERE’

MUMBAI, (IANS) As “14 Phera”, starring Vikrant Massey and Kriti Kharbanda, gets ready for an OTT release, the cast and crew shared their excitement about the film. “14 Phera” is billed as a comedy directed by Devanshu Singh and written by Manoj Kalwani. The film also features Gauahar Khan and Jameel Khan. “This is a fun-filled family movie where you will see bonding and emotional values. The film celebrates the institution of family and marriage but questions a few basic flaws in a reasonable way. We are not trying to make fun of traditions and customs. In fact, you can watch the film with your entire family,” said director Singh. Kriti added: “Halfway through reading the script, I felt a range of emotions. The intrigue I felt reassured me that it was a kick script and would make for a super entertaining movie! It’s not just another wedding film. I can’t wait for the audience to witness it soon.”

HARBHAJAN, GEETA BLESSED WITH A BOY

JALANDHAR, (IANS) Former Indian cricketer Harbhajan Singh and his wife, actor Geeta Basra, were on Saturday blessed with a baby boy. This is the couple's second child after their daughter HinayaHeerPlaha was born in July 2016. The off-spinner shared the news on Twitter and informed that both the mother and the child are doing well. “A new little hand for us to hold, his love is grand, precious as gold. A wonderful gift, so special and sweet,” the picture posted on Twitter by Harbhajan said. “Our hearts are full, our lives complete. We thank the almighty for blessing us with a healthy baby boy. Both Geeta and the baby are doing well. We are overwhelmed with joy and would like to extend our gratitude to all our well-wishers for their constant love and support.” Former India all-rounder Irfan Pathan replied with ‘mubarak bhai’. Dinesh Karthik, currently on commentary duties in England, tweeted, “Congratulations on your new little bundle of joy (heart emoji).” Harbhajan was last seen in cricketing action in April in the first half of the Indian Premier League. He represented Kolkata Knight Riders in three matches but went wicketless.

BHUMI: NEED TO STAY SUPER VIGILANT AS VIRUS HASN'T GONE ANYWHERE

MUMBAI, (IANS) Actress Bhumi Pednekar urges citizens to be extra cautious amid the ongoing second wave of Covid-19. She reminds fans that they are still in the middle of the pandemic and need to be careful to avoid a fresh spike in cases. "We need to stay super vigilant because the virus hasn't gone anywhere. Lives are at stake constantly, so we will need to act responsibly. Each one of us has the power to contribute and help India to bounce back. Let's do that for our country," she said. "We have to understand that by being careful, we are also aiding the medical fraternity who have worked every single day since March 2020. We have to understand that they too have families," she added. Bhumi stressed that people are putting their families at risk by being casual about the virus. "By being conscious about our responsibilities, we will be helping the health infrastructure too," she said, adding: "We are in the middle of the pandemic and now is not the time to put our guards down." "Yes, we all have to work and look after our families despite the pandemic but we can be very mindful about maintaining social distance, washing our hands or sanitizing them regularly and follow all the recommended steps as soon as we reach home after stepping out. We can try and keep the virus at bay. Let's aim to do that," she said.

NAWAZUDDIN SIDDIQUI IN KANGANA RANAUT'S PRODUCTION 'TIKU WEDS SHERU'

MUMBAI, (IANS) Nawazuddin Siddiqui will star in Kangana Ranaut's upcoming production "Tiku Weds Sheru", according to an announcement on the verified Instagram account of the actress' production house, Manikarnika Films, on Tuesday evening.

"The best actor of our generation joins team Tiku Weds Sheru... We are privileged to have found our Lion #TikuwedsSheru. Filming begins soon," ran the announcement caption on the Manikarnika Films Instagram handle, along with a red heart emoji.

The post was accompanied by a black-and-white picture of Siddiqui.

Unconfirmed sources have said that Kangana was earlier keen to produce the film with the late Irrfan Khan in the lead. Recently, praising Kangana as a very good actress, Siddiqui, on being asked about working with the actress, had said that an official announcement would be made when that happens.

TIGER SHROFF'S SISTER KRISHNA SHROFF OPENS UP ON HER 'FIRST LOVE' AT AGE 20, SAYS 'ONLY TIME I FELT HEARTACHE'

Jackie Shroff and Ayesha Shroff's daughter, Krishna Shroff may not be an actor like her brother, Tiger Shroff, but she enjoys a massive fan following on social media. The star kid often sets the internet on fire with her bikini photos wherein she flaunts her toned figure. Although Krishna has often stated that she has no plans of following her brother and father's footsteps, she recently made her music video debut with the song 'Kinni Kinni Vaari'. Sung by Rashi Sood, the Punjabi track talks about heartbreak from the perspective of a woman. When asked if the stunning diva has experienced heartbreak, Krishna told IndianExpress.com, "I have." She then remembered her 'first relationship' and 'first love' at the age of 20 and said, "We were together for three years. It was a serious relationship. We moved in together, we lived together, traveled the world together, worked together. It wasn't a messy breakup. We just mutually grew apart. And we both decided to move on. That was truly the only time I felt heartache but it motivated me to better myself. I diverted all that energy that I was putting into the relationship on myself. And when I did that, I was unstoppable. That is when my fitness journey began and my life changed for better. So, I am grateful for all that experience." Krishna also shared that she is excited with the positive response she has received from the audience. "For me, it is so important to consistently do something that I feel truly passionate about. Kinni Kinni Vaari had a strong message and concept. It didn't take much convincing because I was told to be myself," she said. When asked if she has any plans to join Bollywood, Krishna is sure that she will not. She explains, "Probably not. Definitely not. For me, anything I do has to spark an interest, strike a chord. And Bollywood doesn't do that. There is so much more to do. People need to start looking a little beyond (Bollywood)."

SHWETA TIWARI 'FEELS SAD' SHE COULDN'T HELP DAUGHTER PALAK TIWARI WITH BOLLYWOOD AS SHE WORKS IN A 'DIFFERENT INDUSTRY'

One of TV's most popular actresses, Shweta Tiwari has had her fair share of struggles in life. But despite everything, Shweta has made a mark for herself in the industry and is now getting ready for her daughter, Palak Tiwari's Bollywood debut. Palak Tiwari is all set to make her acting debut with horror film, 'Rosie: The Saffron Chapter' alongside Vivek Oberoi. However, the television star regrets the fact that she could not provide Palak with much beyond her support because she primarily belongs to a different industry. "I feel very proud because everything that she got, she did it with her hard work and her auditions. I was just there to support her. I could not provide her anything else being in a different industry. (I belong to) The TV industry and she is going to enter the film industry," Shweta told IANS. The 40-year-old actress has been a part of the television industry for over two decades now. She rose to fame wither portrayal as main lead Perna Sharma Bajaj in Ekta Kapoor's 'Kasautii Zindagii Kay'. She has worked in several shows such as 'Parvarrish', 'Begusarai' and 'Mere Dad Ki Dulhan'.

Shweta shares the Bollywood and TV industry, both function in different ways but is proud of her hardworking daughter. "The way of working in these two industries are absolutely different. I think I could not help her much, which I feel sad about. She is such a hardworking girl and I am so proud of her," the actress added.

Janhvi Kapoor flaunts her curves in a sexy bodycon dress, Shanaya Kapoor reacts

Janhvi Kapoor has lately been causing a stir on the internet with her stunning photos. The actress has everyone in awe of her, from bringing sexiness back to donning athleisure clothing. Janhvi has posted pictures of her in beige coloured hot body con dress. In the first picture, she can be seen posing with her hand in her hair and the others are of the actress striking different poses. Fans loved the post and took to the comment section to be all hearts for Janhvi. Shanaya Kapoor commented with heart-eyes and a fire emoji. In her most recent photographs, she showed off her bold side. Janhvi shared two photos on her Instagram account. She wears a white, deep-necked sports bra with shorts and an oversized white denim jacket in the photo. She chose a white heart emoji for the caption. She also posted a monochromatic picture in which she can be seen showing off her bareback with her hair open, which her hair is freely falling on her face as she looks behind right into the camera. The song that plays in the background is 'Akhiyaan' by Danyal Zafar aka Danny Zee, who also happens to be Pakistani singer and actor Ali Zafar's brother. On the work front, Janhvi is gearing up for the release of her film 'Dostana 2'. 'Dostana 2' recently made headlines as the production banner Dharma Productions announced actor Kartik Aaryan's exit from the film.

KARAN AUJLA RELEASES FIRST TRACK OF HIS DEBUT ALBUM

MUMBAI, (IANS) Punjabi rapper Karan Aujla released the first track of his maiden album "BTFU" (BACTHAFU*UP) on Thursday. The track is called "Chu gon do". Shot by Rupan Bal, the song is sung and penned by Karan. Tru-Skool has given music to the track and the music video features Satnam Singh and Mad Yardies, a group of Jamaican musicians. The track is mixed and mastered by Tru-Skool and Tee-L and was shot entirely in Canada over the past few months. "It is a groovy number I have created as an ode to my friends. It's the kind of song I would listen to while I am out with my buddies. It was an extremely satisfying piece of work as I got the chance to collaborate with Satnam and Mad Yardies. There is a distinct cool vibe to the number and I feel we were able to bring together our diverse musical world view into this one song. It's smooth, it's fun," Karan says. He adds that the song is immensely close to his heart. "It's the first reveal of my very first album. These are the moments every artiste looks forward to. It has been a long journey to this point but knowing that have been able to conjure up such a gratifying album, makes me feel on top of the world. The music and the words cater to different emotions and we've tried to keep it as personal as possible. Every track in the album attempts to cater to a different audience, while satisfying my fans who have been the constant force through my career," says Karan.

AKSHAY KUMAR GAINS WEIGHT FOR 'RAKSHA BANDHAN', TALKS ABOUT HOW HE 'ENJOYS THE PROCESS'

There is no denying the fact that Akshay Kumar has maintained strong standards of fitness throughout his career. However, recently he got that a chance to let himself go and feast to his heart's content. Akshay who plays a character from Delhi in Aanand L Rai's Raksha Bandhan had to bulk up for the film. Interestingly, he had to lose six kg to look leaner as a cop for Sooryavanshi. However, the actor is not at all complaining. "I quite enjoy the process of losing or gaining weight for a character because I am able to do it in a healthy way. I have gained 5 kg in a totally natural process. And it also allowed me the rare indulgence of eating meri maa ke haath ka halwa. What a blessing!" he gushes. Kumar, who is currently shooting for Raksha Bandhan in Mumbai, will be seen sharing screen space with five fresh faces who play his sisters in the film. Akshay Kumar will also be seen in Priyadarshan's upcoming project. Confirming his upcoming collaboration with Akshay, Priyadarshini told IANS: "Yes that is happening next year. It was supposed to happen this year but got pushed. We start shooting next year." "It will be a comedy film. I don't want to take any more risks. Let me entertain my audience. So far, the films in which we both worked have been very successful. Those were almost 70 per cent humorous films with a nice emotional ending." Akshay will also be seen in "Hungama 2" The comedy features Paresh Rawal, Shilpa Shetty Kundra, Meezaan Jaffrey and Pranitha Subhash. The filmmaker clarifies the film is not an extension of his 2004 hit "Hungama".

'BLACK WIDOW' BOX OFFICE: SCARLETT JOHANSSON STARRER RAKES IN RECORD BREAKING USD 218 MILLION WORLDWIDE IN FIRST WEEKEND

Disney and Marvel's superhero adventure 'Black Widow' captured a massive $80 million in its first weekend, crushing the benchmark for the biggest opening weekend since the pandemic. In a first for the Marvel Cinematic Universe, the film opened simultaneously in theaters and on Disney Plus as part of the streaming service's Premier Access offering, where subscribers can rent 'Black Widow' for an extra $30. Disney reported that 'Black Widow' generated more than $60 million 'in Disney Plus Premier Access consumer spend globally,' marking the rare occasion in which a studio discloses revenues for digital rentals. Overseas, 'Black Widow' collected $78 million in its debut, boosting its global box office haul to $158 million. Disney didn't share viewership data for the previously released 'Cruella' starring Emma Stone and the animated 'Raya and the Last Dragon,' which also premiered simultaneously in theaters and on Disney Plus. It's unclear if Disney will continue to report digital rentals for the upcoming action adventure 'Jungle Cruise,' which opens in cinemas and on Disney Plus on July 30.

'GIVE THIS WOMAN HER LIFE BACK': MADONNA COMES OUT IN SUPPORT OF BRITNEY SPEARS

More fans and celebrities have come out in favour of Britney Spears since she revealed her harrowing experience under the court-ordered conservatorship during a recent hearing. Another celebrity that has come up in her support is Madonna. Sharing a picture, she wrote on her Instagram story, "Give this woman her life back. Slavery was abolished so long ago! Death to the greedy patriarchy that has been doing this to women for centuries," Madonna wrote. This is a violation of human rights! Britney we coming to get you out of jail!" For the unversed, Britney Spears had described the 13-year conservatorship over her life as stupid and abusive claiming she was traumatised and angry and wanted her life back. Spears informed the Los Angeles judge overseeing the arrangement that she wanted it to terminate in a statement that lasted more than 20 minutes. "I just want my life back," she said. "I'm not here to be anyone's slave. I'm traumatized... I'm not happy, I can't sleep," she said. Spears said her frequent upbeat postings on her Instagram account were lies. "I'm so angry and I'm depressed. I cry every day," she added. Spears delivered her remarks by phone, her first public statements about the court-approved arrangement that was first put in place in 2008 when she suffered a mental health breakdown. She said she was pushed into a $60,000-per-month mental health institution after cancelling her planned Las Vegas gigs in early 2019. Since late 2018, she hasn't performed. Judge Brenda Penny of the Los Angeles Superior Court indicated that before she could take any action, she would require a petition to the court asking for the conservatorship to be removed.

Priyanka Chopra gets trolled, compared to Kate Middleton for her dress at Wimbledon Finals, netizens call her 'tacky'

Priyanka Chopra is generally known for her eclectic fashion taste and is often lauded for her sartorial fashion choices. However, her latest outfit that she wore at a Wimbledon match did not go down well netizens who called her ‘tacky’. Many even compared her to Kate Middleton. On July 10, Priyanka attended the women’s singles finals between Ashleigh Barty and Karolina Pliskova in London. Priyanka was accompanied by her friend, Natasha Poonawalla who is the wife of SII’s CEO, Adar Poonawalla. For her outing, Priyanka was dressed head-to-toe in Fendi. The actor wore a white turtleneck printed Fendi midi dress from the Fall 2021 collection and paired it with a snakeskin belt. The dress had multiple layers and an asymmetrical hemline. Priyanka completed her look with a tan brown bag, Fendi earrings, and her hair tied up in a bun. While the actress totally aced the look and was praised for her outfit, there was a section of the internet that trolled Priyanka's choice of clothes for the match.

One user commented, “Look like a grandma,” while another wrote, “She’s never dressed well. She needs to hire someone better.” A third user commented, “The worst dressed celebrity most of the time. PC needs a fashion revamp. Her stylist are making a joke out of her.” Another user wrote, “This is so over the top for Wimbledon. Look at how lovely the future Queen looked. Why do bollywoodians dress so tacky when they attend events abroad. What was going on here with her outfit? All she needed was a lovely summer dress and/or blazer with it! (sic).” One user even pointed out if PC was pregnant. “I’m wondering if she’s preggo....but in any case this is not a flattering outfit,” the user commented. While referring Priyanka’s relationship to Meghan Markle, one user wrote, “Seems like she didn’t get the fashion memo. Yikes. Could have taken some pointers from her friend the ex duchess.” Priyanka sat in the royal box with the royals- Duke and Duchess of Cambridge – Prince William and Kate Middleton. Tennis legends Martina Navratilova and Billie Jean King also sat in the Royal Box.

BOYCOTT 'TOOFAAN' TRENDS ON TWITTER AS NETIZENS DEMAND BAN ON FARHAN AKHTAR'S FILM FOR PROMOTING 'LOVE JIHAD'

Farhan Akhtar’s upcoming film, ‘Toofaan’ has created quite the chatter. The film, which stars Mrunal Thakur as the female lead has found itself embroiled in another controversy. Just ahead of the film’s release, #Boycott Toofan has been trending on Twitter as a section of netizens have demanded a ban on the film for spreading love jihad. For the unversed, trolls demanded a ban on ‘Toofan’ even in March due to Farhan’s old comments on the Citizenship Amendment Act (CAA). The actor had opposed CAA, which led to people lashing out at his film. This time people have demanded to boycott the film as it shows interfaith marriage. Farhan Akhtar’s character, Aziz Ali, reportedly falls in love with Dr Pooja Shah, played by Mrunal Thakur. Disgruntled netizens took to Twitter and claimed ‘Toofaan’ is against our culture. Many even said that web series insult Hindu traditions. One user commented, “BOYCOTT EVERY MOVIE WHICH IS AGAINST OUR CULTURE AND DHARMA #BoycottToofaan.”

DEEPIKA PADUKONE AND HRITHIK ROSHAN ARE 'READY FOR TAKEOFF' AS THEY START SHOOTING FOR 'FIGHTER'

Fans are super excited to see the most awaited on-screen pair, Hrithik Roshan and Deepika Padukone star together in the upcoming action flick, Fighter and they have treated their fans with the sweetest pictures. The Krrish superstar took to his social media to share adorable pictures with Deepika Padukone and director, Siddharth Anand as he wrote, "This gang is ready for take off. #Fighter" The Piku actress had a quirky comment as she wrote, "Yes! As soon as we digest that food though!" While Hrithik looked dapper in a plain black tee with a white and blue cap, Deepika Padukone stunned in a plain red pullover and silver hoop earrings as they looked adorable posing together. The gang of the film had met at a restaurant in Juhu during the day, to discuss more about Fighter together. The superstar duo had announced their first ever on-screen union for Fighter in January this year leaving fans gasping with the announcement. On Thursday, Indian film critic and trade analyst Taran Adarsh shared an update about the movie on his Instagram handle and revealed that ‘Fighter’ will be India’s first aerial action franchise which will salute the valour, sacrifice and patriotism of our armed forces.

VIRAL! AMEESHA PATEL BREAKS INTERNET WITH HER DROOL-WORTHY BIKINI VIDEOS, SAYS 'BEACH FEELS ON MY MIND'

Actress Ameesha Patel is really missing the beach and is longing for a vacation and that is evident from her latest photos. Ameesha has been setting the internet on fire with her latest photos and her fans just can’t get enough. The ‘Gadar’ actress shared a video of herself in a hot multi-coloured bikini and paired her look with blue-tinted shades and a red bandana. The video is shot on a beach. “Hope I could be as hot and cool as u,” she captioned her post. Ameesha also shared a photo of herself in a sexy black bikini, black shades, and a brown printed bandana. The photo left many drooling in the comment section. Ameesha paired her look with two heart-shaped necklaces. While sharing the picture, she wrote, “Beach feels on my mind.” In another video, Ameesha can be seen relaxing on a chair while wearing a black bikini, shades and a brown bandana. “Chillin out relaxin sunshine and sea salt in my hair ... major missing... beach life,” she captioned her video.

ITALY BEAT ENGLAND IN PENALTIES TO WIN EURO 2020

LONDON, (IANS) Italy became the European football champions after a gap of 53 years by defeating hosts England in a dramatic penalty shootout in the Euro 2020 final at the historic Wembley stadium here. Italy had won their first Euro title in 1968 and they won their second one when goalkeeper Donnarumma blocked a poor effort by 19-year-old Bukayo Saka of England, after Jorginho had missed the last Italian kick, to win the penalty shoot out 3-2 after both teams were deadlocked 1-1 after 120 minutes of action. Playing in front of 60,000 fans despite the pandemic, Italy came back after conceding an early goal to tie the game 1-1 and then showed steely nerves in the penalties. England added to their list of miserable history in penalty shootouts as despite being put ahead of goalkeeper Jordan Pickford who saved a couple of penalties. Earlier, England took early lead when defender Luke Shaw scored at one minute and 57th second -- the fastest goal of a Euro final. Luke Shaw started the counter and rushed ahead to meet a long cross by Kieran Trippier near the six-yard spot and shot home off the left-hand post. Italy equalised midway through the second half when defender Leonardo Bonucci, scored off a goal-line scramble in the 67th minute. Off a corner, goalkeeper Jordan Pickford forced Marco Verratti's header onto the left-hand post but the ball fell for Bonucci and he did not make any mistake to make it 1-1. Both teams made efforts to break the deadlock but failed as the match went into extra time and penalties.

SUPERNOVA-K: DJOKOVIC WINS WIMBLEDON, HIS 20TH GRAND SLAM CROWN

LONDON, (IANS) World No.1 Novak Djokovic defeated Italy's Matteo Berrettini 6-7(4), 6-4, 6-4, 6-3 in the final on Sunday to clinch his sixth Wimbledon title and 20th Grand Slam crown overall. The Serb celebrated his victory by chewing on the grass from the hallowed centre court. By winning the title on Sunday, the Serb top seed joined Roger Federer and Rafael Nadal, the other two members of the Big Three, as the players with the most number of Grand Slam singles titles in the Open Era. Djokovic came back after losing the first set in the tiebreaker and dominated the proceedings, breaking his Italian rival's serve at crucial junctures in the next three sets. Though Berrettini, playing his first Grand Slam final, started tentatively, he recovered to take the first set into the tiebreaker as Djokovic made an indifferent start. This was the first set that Djokovic lost after winning 18 in a row.

ATHLETES FROM PUNJAB CAN WIN AT LEAST FOUR MEDALS: MINISTER

CHANDIGARH, (IANS) Asserting that Punjab's preparation for Tokyo Olympics is on a par with global standards, Sports Minister Rana Gurnit Singh Sodhi on Sunday hoped that the athletes belonging to the state would win at least three to four medals. Punjab is sending the second-largest contingent of the country. Extending wishes to the players, Sodhi said, "India is sending 117 members, the largest-ever contingent to Olympics, out of which 14 per cent players belongs to Punjab. As we are sending the second-largest contingent after Haryana, the players from Punjab will be able to win at least three to four Olympic medals." The minister assured them of full government support and facilities. "We will take care of their financial and logistic issues.

INDIA OFF-SPINNER RAVICHANDRAN ASHWIN JOINS SURREY'S SQUAD FOR COUNTY CHAMPIONSHIP AGAINST SOMERSET

India off-spinner Ravichandran Ashwin on Saturday was added to Surrey's squad for the County Championship fixture against Somerset, beginning July 11 at the Oval. Ashwin will join the group for this match only. "Sean Abbott was originally expected to be Surrey's second overseas player in this fixture, alongside Hashim Amla, but a hamstring injury sustained during the County Championship meeting with Gloucestershire ended his time at The Kia Oval early," said Surrey in an official statement.

PAKISTAN CRICKETER UMAR AKMAL ATTACKED BY FANS AT HIS RESIDENCE

Pakistan middle-order batter Umar Akmal is yet again in the news but for all the wrong reasons. This time, the batsman was seen lodging a complaint against a few fans who he claims to have had a verbal spat with him, while they were having his autograph. According to the right-hand batter, he said he received some of his fans at his residence and when they asked for an autograph, Akmal readily agreed. However, things intensified quickly and both groups went into a heated debate, Pakistan newspaper The Nation reported.

'YOU'RE TALKING ABOUT ICC TROPHY BUT VIRAT IS YET TO WIN AN IPL TITLE': SURESH RAINA ON KOHLI'S CAPTAINCY

Former India cricketer Suresh Raina has said that though Team India skipper Virat Kohli is one of the finest captains India has ever seen but it will be too early to pass any judgment on his achievements as a skipper. Raina, in an interview with News24, said that Kohli is the No. 1 batsman in world cricket. He said, "I think he has been the No. 1 captain. His record proves that he has achieved a lot. I think he is the No. 1 batsman in the world. You're talking about an ICC trophy but he hasn't even won an IPL yet. I feel that he needs to be given some time. There are 2-3 World Cups taking place one after the other – two T20 World Cups and then the 50-over World Cup. It's not easy to reach the final – sometimes you miss out on a few things."

TOKYO OLYMPICS WILL BE HELD WITHOUT SPECTATORS AT VENUES AS JAPAN IMPOSES COVID EMERGENCY FROM JULY 12 UNTIL AUGUST 22

TOKYO, (IANS) The upcoming Olympic Games in Tokyo will be held without spectators. All the stakeholders involved in organizing the Games on Thursday came to this conclusion after the Japanese government announced an emergency in and around Tokyo until the end of the Games that will be held from July 23-August 8. With the government of Japan virtually barring spectators' entry into the stadiums, the International Olympic Committee (IOC), the International Paralympic Committee (IPC), the Tokyo 2020 Organising Committee, the Tokyo Metropolitan Government (TMG) supported the decision, thus sealing the fate of the Olympics as 'closed games'. In June, the Japanese government had announced the possibility of allowing a limited number of local spectators into the stadia. A decision to not allow foreign spectators was taken a few months ago. On Thursday, Japan's Olympics Minister Tamayo Marukawa made the announcement following discussions with officials and organizers. A state of emergency in Tokyo will run throughout the Games, to combat the coronavirus. Japan is experiencing a new surge in cases and according to reports, on Wednesday 2, 180 new cases were reported in the country. Some 920 of those were in Tokyo, up from 714 last week and it's the highest since 1,010 detected on May 13. Japanese Prime Minister Yoshihide Suga told reporters in Tokyo that the state of emergency would run from July 12 and remain in place until August 22, thus impacting the start of the Paralympic Games, which will start on August 24 and run till September 5. The big announcement by the Japanese government got the five stakeholders into a huddle and they came out with a joint statement supporting the move.
