BIGG BOSS 14 HAS BECOME SO BORING: KAVITA KAUSHIK

Sunday saw three new housemates – Kavita Kaushik, Naina Singh and Shardul Pandit – entering Bigg Boss 14. The trio interacted with Salman Khan on the stage, and gave a glimpse of what one can expect from them on the show. FIR fame Kavita said she has been a fan of Bigg Boss and promised to add some entertainment to the otherwise "boring" season. In an exclusive chat with indianexpress.com, the actor opened up about her participation, competition and even described the contestants in her own style. I think the timing. The unthinkable is happening and the pandemic has made me realise that I was being too rigid. They have been approaching me from the first season, and although it's always so tempting, I have always said no. Bigg Boss is a show that's watched by the whole world. It's on such a popular channel and to be honest, the budgets are great. There was a lot of temptation but what put me off every time were the fights. It was mental torture. However, I have realised that the world has now become a similar place. Whatever you say, even if it's a good thing or not, a lot of criticism comes your way. The whole barrier has now dropped and so I thought what's the harm. Also, it's still scary to go out and given the team is taking so much precaution, it was the perfect timing.

SHRUTI HAASAN: NOT DISAPPOINTED AT NOT GETTING TO ACT IN MORE HINDI FILMS

Popular actress Shruti Haasan doesn't seem to be too worried about not having acted in more Bollywood movies since debuting with the Soham Shah directed Hindi film Luck in 2009. Her last Hindi film release was Tigamshu Dhulia directorial Yaara, which is currently streaming on Zee5. Shruti, daughter of versatile actor Kamal Haasan, however, has carved a niche for herself in South Indian cinema with several successful films in both Tamil and Telugu. So she wasn't amused when asked if she was disappointed at not getting to act in more Hindi projects. "Are you disappointed? because I am not. I am super thankful for all the films I have done in all the languages," she shot back. Back on the sets with the easing of COVID-19 lockdown curbs, she finds the experience surreal. "...it definitely is a weird experience! very surreal. At first, I shot for a short film after being alone for almost six months and all I could think about was how weird it was to be back on set," she told PTI. "...overall I do believe that we can improve systems of safety especially with large numbers of people on a movie set," she added. Shruti said the lockdown has been a great learning experience for her in being creative in understanding herself better and "most of all in learning to be thankful for what we actually have."

BOXING DAY TEST IN MELBOURNE AS DATES CONFIRMED FOR INDIA'S TOUR OF AUSTRALIA

MELBOURNE: The Indian cricket team will get an additional Day/Night warm-up game in Sydney as a tune-up to the series-opening Pink Ball Test against Australia in Adelaide from December 17, the host board announced on Wednesday unveiling the full schedule of the 69-day engagement. The tour will include a 14-day quarantine-cum-training period in Sydney starting November 12 for the Indians who will fly in after the Indian Premier League (IPL) final on November 10. The Border-Gavaskar Trophy will begin with a day-night encounter at the Adelaide Oval on December 17, followed by Tests at the Melbourne Cricket Ground (December 26), the Sydney Cricket Ground (January 7) and the Gabba (January 15). As per BCCI's demands, there is a week's gap between the Boxing Day Test at the MCG and the New Year's Test at the SCG. "India's squad will arrive in Sydney on November 12 subject to Australian Border Force travel authorisation and the appropriate departure-approvals. The team will quarantine in Sydney prior to the first match of the series on November 27," Cricket Australia (CA) stated in a media release. "...CA can also confirm dates for tour matches ahead of the Test series. India A will take on Australia A at Drummoyne Oval (New South Wales) (December 6-8), and India will play Australia A in a day-night match at the Sydney Cricket Ground (December 11-13)," the release stated. According to the release, the three-match ODI Series will have matches at the Sydney Cricket Ground (November 27, 29) and Manuka Oval, Canberra (December 2). That will be followed by the three-match T20 International Series at Manuka Oval, Canberra (December 4) and the Sydney Cricket Ground (December 6, 8).

CANADIAN MUSIC ICON, SARAH MCLACHLAN TO HEADLINE OSLER FOUNDATION'S FIRST-EVER VIRTUAL GALA BENEFIT CONCERT FUNDRAISER

BRAMPTON/ETOBICOKE: The highly anticipated annual Gala Benefit Concert in support of William Osler Health System Foundation (Osler Foundation) will look a little different this year, but guests can still expect an incredible show from the comfort of home! Canadian music icon, Sarah McLachlan will be the headliner for the 9th annual concert, which will move online for the first time to accommodate health and safety precautions necessary in the wake of the COVID-19 pandemic.

In addition to live and silent auctions, this free event will feature performances by the Grammy and Juno Award winning singer-songwriter. The event is being held in celebration and support of the front line staff and physicians who have worked tirelessly across William Osler Health System (Osler) hospitals throughout the pandemic and beyond.

"The physicians and staff across our hospitals have been working around the clock for months to meet the immense demands of the COVID-19 pandemic," said Ken Mayhew, President and CEO, Osler Foundation.

"They are our Health Care Heroes and this year, our Gala Benefit Concert is dedicated to them. Now, more than ever, we pay tribute to those who enable compassionate life-saving health care close to home."

Funds raised through events like the Gala Benefit concert help Osler provide exceptional care when it's needed most. Though a physical event is not possible this year, everyone is invited to attend virtually to say thank you to our local health care heroes and raise vital funds to support their work.

The event is generously sponsored by DG Group (presenting sponsor), LIUNA! Local 183, Almag Aluminum Inc., Armour Insurance Brokers Ltd., Mrs. Lois Rice, Mercedes-Benz Brampton, S. Robinson & Associates of RBC Dominion Securities, and Sodexo Canada.

Key facts about the Osler Foundation Gala Benefit Concert:

*Funds raised through this virtual event will help fund essential equipment such as ventilators, electric beds, vital signs monitors and vein finders across Osler's three sites: Etobicoke General Hospital, Peel Memorial Centre for Integrated Health and Wellness and Brampton Civic Hospital.

*Guests can register for this free event at oslerconcert.ca.

To learn more about sponsorship opportunities, please call Osler Foundation at (905) 863-2579. Sponsorship opportunities can include a VIP dinner at home, company logo placement, and recognition in select marketing materials.

Sarah McLachlan headlines William Osler Health System Foundation's virtual Gala Benefit Concert on November 20, 2020.

ABOUT WILLIAM OSLER HEALTH SYSTEM and FOUNDATION:

William Osler Health System is a hospital system, which includes Brampton Civic Hospital, Peel Memorial Centre for Integrated Health and Wellness and Etobicoke General Hospital, and serves 1.3 million residents of Brampton, Etobicoke and surrounding communities within the Central West region. Osler's emergency departments are among the busiest in Canada and its labour and delivery program is one of the largest in the province. William Osler Health System Foundation seeks to create a healthier community through giving by inspiring its communities to invest in exceptional health care close to home.

Gauahar Khan sends birthday wishes to Zaid Darbar, shares photos twinning in white

After dismissing rumours of getting married to choreographer and Bollywood composer Ismail Darbar's son, Zaid Darbar, actress Gauahar Khan cannot stop gushing about her rumoured boyfriend while wishing him on the occasion of his birthday. On Saturday, Gauahar took to her Instagram handle to send an adorable and heart-warming birthday wish to Zaid. Alongside colour-coordinated photos from Zaid's birthday celebrations, Gauahar wrote, "zaid_darbar you are a blessing and may your life be filled with all the happiness, health, wealth and success! Ameen! Have the most amazing year ahead Zeddy! From being the most Amazing (also hot) human, to being the reason to me smiling from ear to ear, to moments of me wanting to strangle you (when you trouble me), being goofy comes easy when I'm with you, to your caring side settling my hair before we click pictures, it only makes you the bestest! I pray for you from the bottom of my heart." Bollywood composer Ismail Darbar's son Zaid is a choreographer and social media influencer. A few days ago, rumours were rife that Gauahar and Zaid are all set to be married in November. However, speaking to IANS, Gauahar dismissed all such speculations. "These are just rumours. If there will be anything I will let you all know about it," she said. Among videos that had sparked the rumours is one uploaded by Gauahar where the two can be seen sharing steps on Neha Kakkar and Parmish Verma's song "Diamond da challa". At the end of the clip, Zaid goes on his knees and slips a ring on Gauahar's finger, making fans wonder if it is a real proposal. "Ye hai Gaane ka asar YA mann ki baat ??? Jaldi Batao#GaZa killing it ... #dropYourLove @zaid_darbar Ssshhhhhhhhhh ... #diamonddachalla," Gauahar had captioned the post. Earlier, in an interview with Times of India, Zaid said, "We are just family friends," adding that his entire family is very fond of Gauahar. Meanwhile, spilling the beans on his son Zaid and Gauahar's relationship, Ismail Darbar told ETimes in a recent interview, "Gauahar was with us for nearly 4 hours; we had a biryani dinner together. If the vibes are not good, I don't think one can sit for more than 4 minutes with anybody in today's times. My son Zaid has told me that they are serious about each other. I have absolutely no objection."

INTERIM COURT GRANTS RELIEF AGAINST ARREST OF NAWAZUDDIN SIDDIQUI, FAMILY IN MOLESTATION CASE

The Allahabad High Court on Sunday granted interim relief against arrest of actor Nawazuddin Siddiqui and three of his family members in connection with a molestation case filed by his estranged wife. However, the third brother, Minazuddin, failed to get relief from the court as his petition was junked by a division bench of Justices Manoj Mishra and Sanjay Kumar Pachauri. "However, considering that specific allegation of child abuse is against the petitioner no. 1 (Minajuddin Siddiqui) only and the rest of the Petitioners have been implicated by levelling general allegation, we deem it appropriate to dispose of this writ petition by providing that in so far as the petitioner no. 2 (Faiyazuddin Siddiqui); petitioner no. 3 (Ayazuddin Siddiqui); petitioner no. 4 (Mehrunisha Siddiqui); and petitioner no. 5 (Nawazuddin Siddiqui) are concerned, the investigation shall continue and brought to its logical conclusion but they shall not be arrested in the above case till submission of police report under Section 173 (2) CrPC, provided they co-operate in the investigation," the justices noted. The High Court observed that the allegations made in the FIR were essentially in two parts as per which the first part was in respect of the role of petitioner no. 1, which related to child abuse and the second part was in respect of the entire family of the petitioner no. 1 ganging against the informant. From the allegations, it also appears that respondent no. 4 (Aaliya) has taken a decision to take a divorce from petitioner no 5 (Nawazuddin Siddiqui), the Bench said.

On the occasion of her birthday today, actor Raveena Tandon treated her fans with the first look of her character in KGF Chapter 2. The actor will be returning to the silver screen in the powerful role of Ramika Sen in the film.

Introducing her character on Twitter on Monday, she wrote, "THE gavel to brutality!!! Presenting #RamikaSen from #KGFChapter2. Thanks KGF team for the gift."

In the picture, Raveena can be seen sitting on a bench with moist eyes, wearing a maroon sari, with authority and power. KGF follows Rocky (Yash), who rises from poverty to become the king of a gold mine. The film stars Yash in the lead role and also marks Bollywood actor Sanjay Dutt's Kannada debut. Dutt is all set to begin shooting for the film in November. Yash, Prakash Raj, and Malavika Avinash had resumed shooting of the film in August.

On the work front, Raveena is currently shooting for her debut web series in Dalhousie, Himachal Pradesh. Speaking about the same, she had said, "I am looking forward to resume shooting. It is very important for all us to take all kinds of safety precautions. We have travelled by adhering to all Covid-19 guidelines." "Personally, I am very particular about safety and hygiene during these COVID times and me and the entire cast and crew will be adhering to strict social distancing norms," she added. Raveena who was a popular film figure in the 90s is best known for her films like Mohra, Andaz Apna Apna, Laadla, Dulhe Raja, Shool, Aks, Daman, Satta, and Maatr.

'I still like him': Priyanka Chopra on spending time with Nick Jonas during coronavirus pandemic Priyanka Chopra and Nick Jonas, for the first time in their relationship, spent maximum time with each other during the coronavirus pandemic. The couple has been living at their lavish abode in Los Angeles while enjoying their time to the fullest. However, they had been working continuously, courtesy of the virtual world during the lockdown. Moreover, now Priyanka had headed to Europe where she is shooting for Matrix 4 making her first outing in the hit franchise. During a recent interaction with Today, Priyanka was asked about quarantining with Nick and something which they learned while being together. To which she gave an interesting reply. The actor stated, "That I still like him after spending so much time with him. He's great, and we would've never had as much time with each other as we got during this quarantine." PeeCee added, "It only took a global pandemic for us to align our schedules together, but that was definitely a silver lining is to be able to be home. And we moved into a new house, and we had time to kind of do it up together and incubate, which was great." Talking about her productivity during the lockdown, Priyanka said, "I mean I have to say I was very productive during this quarantine...I spent a lot of time on my health and wellness and eating right and being a creative person I guess I continued to work. I finished my memoir, which is on pre-order on Amazon, and at the same time I have a developmental deal with Amazon, so I got a lot of shows done for them."

SONU SOOD AWAITING SANJAY DUTT'S ARRIVAL ON AKSHAY KUMAR STARRER 'PRITHVIRAJ' SETS AFTER RECOVERY FROM CANCER

After Akshay Kumar, now actor Sonu Sood took to his Twitter and expressed his happiness for Sanjay Dutt who recently announced that he is cancer-free after being diagnosed with lung cancer earlier. Sonu Sood wrote, "Love you Baba.. I am waiting for you on our sets. #prithviraj." Earlier, Akshay Kumar had also tweeted saying, "BeBaba...s! So good to hear this baba. Looking forward to seeing you on set real soon."

For the uninformed, Sanjay Dutt had recently announced on his kids' 10th birthday that he has recovered from his recent health scare.

He wrote, "The last few weeks were very difficult time for my family and me. But like they say, God gives the hardest battles to the strongest soldiers. And today, on the occasion of my kid's birthday, I am happy to come out victorious from this battle and be able to give them the best gift I canthe health and well being of our family." He also thanked his fans and well-wishers for their constant support and well-wishes. He wrote, "This wouldn't have been possible without the unwavering faith and support from all of you. I am eternally grateful to my family, friends, and all the fans who have stood by me and been my source of strength through this trying time. Thank you for the love, kindness, and the countless blessings that you have sent my way." Thanking his doctors in his long note, Dutt wrote, "I am especially grateful to Dr Sewanti and her team of doctors, nurses, and medical staff at Kokilaben Hospital who have taken such good care of me in the last few weeks. Humbled and grateful." It was back in August that Sanjay Dutt had announced on social media that he was taking a break from work for medical reasons.

Mandira Bedi welcomes baby girl Tara Bedi Kaushal

Mandira Bedi and her husband Raj Kaushal have welcomed a baby girl into their family. The couple has adopted a four-year-old baby girl and named her Tara Bedi Kaushal. Mandira made the announcement through her Instagram post. The couple, already blessed with a 9-year-old son Vir Kaushal, welcomed Tara into their family. In her Instagram post, Mandira said that Tara became a part of their family, after which Raj commented that their family is 'now complete'. The couple adopted the baby girl on July 28, 2020. Mandira announced the news with a photo of the family in their home. Tara sat besides Mandira and Raj, while Vir stood for the photo. "She has come to us. Like a blessing from above. Our little girl, Tara. Four years and a bit. With eyes that sparkle like stars. Sister to her Vir. Welcoming her home. With open arms and pure love. Grateful, thankful, blessed. Tara Bedi Kaushal. Became a part of our family on 28th July 2020," wrote Bedi while sharing the image. Mandira had announced the news in 2019 in an interview with Hindustan Times itself. She had said, "Raj and I wanted a sister for Vir. My son is eight and we are looking at adopting a girl who could be between two-and-a-half to four-years-old. We have already thought of a name for her. We are going to call her Tara."

Mandira Bedi, best remembered for her role in the iconic 'Dilwale Dulhania Le Jayenge', got married to Raj in 1999. The 48-year-old has currently been giving fans major fitness and vacationing goals through her Instagram posts.

Aishwarya Rai Bachchan, Kangana Ranaut, Ajay Devgn, Kajol, other celebs extend good wishes

The entire country is celebrating the auspicious occasion of Dussehra or Vijay Dashmi, a horde of Bollywood celebrities also took to their receptive social media accounts and extended warm greetings to their fans including Aishwarya Rai and Abhishek Bachchan, Madhuri Dixit, Ajay Devgn, Kajol, and Kangana Ranaut, and others. Aishwarya, in her post, spoke about 'Karma', highlighting the similarity in the names of Ram and Ravana. She wrote, "Happy Dussehra all."

The picture read, "Everyone has the same start but the end is decided by Karma." Meanwhile, Abhishek took to his Twitter account and wrote, "Wishing you a bright, happy and peaceful Dussehra and a heartfelt Vijaydashami #HappyDussehra."

Manoj Bajpayee shared a special video showing the Suraj Pe Mangal Bhari poster, which features his character, with multiple heads, just like Ravana. Manoj captioned his post saying, "May this festival of triumph bring a token of luck for you and both Suraj and Mangal in their epic face-off! #HappyDussehra!"

Kangana Ranaut also wished her fans on Twitter and wrote, "My broken dream smiling in your face Sanjay Raut, Pappu sena could break my house but not my spirit, Banglow number 5 is celebrating the triumph of good over evil today." Kriti Sanon shared a quote on Twitter and wrote, "Happy Dussehra to everyone! I truly believe that we all have good as well as evil within us.. Let us choose to see the Good.. in ourselves as well as in others! Let us think and speak Good over Evil!" While Kajol and Ajay Devgn said, "Dussehra is a festival when good always triumphs over Evil. Let's all maintain social distance, wear masks and defeat the common evil #HappyDussehra."

"Let's all burn our judgments and negativity this Dussehra. Wishing you a positive and calm year ahead. #HappyDussehra," Kajol wrote.

'Coolie No 1' duo Varun Dhawan-Sara Ali Khan kickstart promotions with 'The Kapil Sharma Show'

In just two months, during the Christmas weekend, Varun Dhawan and Sara Ali Khan's starter Coolie No 1 will be streamed on Amazon Prime Video. The film directed by David Dhawan is the remake of his 90s film of the same name which starred Govinda and Karisma Kapoor in the lead roles. Now, Varun and Sara have finally kickstarted the promotions of Coolie No 1 and their first stop is The Kapil Sharma Show. On Sunday, the actors were clicked by the paparazzi while visiting Kapil Sharma's comedy-talk show. In the photos, Varun sported a handsome look in a black shirt and black ripped jeans with a pair of black and white sneakers. On the other hand, Sara looked pretty in a one-shoulder Fuschia pink jumpsuit with floral white peep-toes. She styled her hair in a high ponytail. Coolie No 1 also stars Paresh Rawal, Javed Jaffrey, Johnny Lever, Rajpal Yadav among others. The out-and-out comedy film is produced by Vashu Bhagnani, Jacky Bhagnani and Deepshikha Deshmukh. Coolie No 1 has been extensively shot in Bangkok, Goa and Mumbai.

While talking about his role in the film, Rajpal had earlier said, "The role I'm playing has a resemblance to Shakti Kapoor's role in the previous Coolie No 1. It was very fun to play. This is my third collaboration with Varun Dhawan as we had done Main Tera Hero and Judwaa 2 before. It was the first time with Sara. But it was a great working experience with them. Varun is very humble and respects me a lot. He is like my younger brother. He is so humble and kind with everyone on set. I have known him since his childhood when he used to come on set with his father as I have seen him grow. And now I'm working with him as costar it feels amazing."

Rohanpreet Singh moves Neha Kakkar to tears; serenades singer in viral video from wedding reception

Neha Kakkar and Rohanpreet Singh's wedding has been the talk of the town for the past few days. Amid this, a new video has emerged on the internet in which Rohanpreet Singh can be seen serenading Neha Kakkar with a sweet song.

In the viral video, Rohanpreet can be heard singing, "Main vadaa kariyaan... tenu chadd ke na javaan (I promise I will never leave you and go)." For the uninformed, the couple got married on Saturday afternoon in Anand Karaj, a traditional Sikh wedding ceremony, which was followed by exchanging garlands.

Neha and Rohanpreet opted for an attire which was inspired by Virat Kohli and Anushka Sharma's wedding. Neha wore an embellished baby pink lehenga choli with a dupatta on her head, just like Anushka wore for her destination wedding in Tuscany. On the other hand, while Virat had donned a white kurta for his wedding, Rohanpreet Singh colour co-ordinated with Neha and went for a pink attire instead. He also chose a pink turban for the garland exchange ceremony.

A fan account shared videos of Neha and Rohanpreet Singh taking pheras in the traditional Anand Karaj.

The couple's images and videos from their haldi and mehendi ceremony had also gone viral as soon as they came out including videos from their engagement and sangeet ceremony have been making rounds of the internet, and winning hearts.

Neha and Rohanpreet made their relationship official earlier this month - on October 9. Their loved-up photos and social media PDA received a lot of love from fans all across.

Before their real wedding, Neha and Rohanpreet also came up with a wedding video. The clip was called #NehuDaVyah, which was one of the hashtags for their real-life wedding too.

KANGANA RANAUT HITS BACK AT SANJAY RAUT AS DUSSEHRA CELEBRATIONS TAKE PLACE IN HER BUNGALOW DEMOLISHED BY BMC

Kangana Ranaut has attacked the Maharashtra Government aka the Shiv Sena members once again this week. The actress now shared images of people celebrating the festival of Dussehra in her Mumbai bungalow, which was partly-demolished by the BMC. Dussehra is also known as Vijaydashami and it marks the end of Navratri.

Kangana has now hit out at Shiv Sena leader Sanjay Raut in her latest tweet and addressed Shiv Sena as 'pappu sena', while talking about the celebrations in her Mumbai home-cum-office. This is the third time that Kangana mentioned them in her tweet during the Navratri festival. "My broken dream smiling in your face Sanjay Raut, Pappu sena could break my house but not my spirit, Banglow number 5 is celebrating the triumph of good over evil today #HappyDussehra," she tweeted while sharing images from the celebrations. The actress shared two pictures - one of the gate of her bungalow (number 5) and another of the Lord Hanuman statue with garland on it. Incense sticks and diya was also burnt as part of the ritual of worshipping Gods in India. For the uninformed, Kangana is still in Himachal Pradesh and has been stating that she would be back in Mumbai soon. The actress had recently been part of her brother's wedding celebration with sister Rangoli Chandel.

While Kangana left for her home in Himachal Pradesh with Rangoli, a new case has been filed against the sisters back in Mumbai. They have been accused of inciting communal violence, and of trying to defame the Maharashtra Government, Shiv Sena.

Meanwhile, she has also been fighting a case after her bungalow was demolished by the BMC once she returned to Mumbai after a verbal spat with Raut. Kangana is demanding Rs 2 crore compensation for demolishing her bungalow, while BMC has been claiming they had sent her a notice before demolishing her bungalow.

There are many former couples in the entertainment industry who have proved that exes can be friends too. One of the best examples is of former cricketer Yuvraj Singh and actor Kim Sharma. The estranged couple was dating each other many years back and at the cricketer's retirement party Kim grabbed eyeballs by marking her presence. Singh married actor Hazel Keech while Kim and her husband Ali Punjani went separate ways.

Soon after that, Yuvraj left a trolling comment on her post which read as "Gaon basaa nahi basta lekar pahunch gai hain madam." To which Kim replied, "English, please."

Earlier while talking about their break, a source had told The Times of India, "The truth is that Kim had become obsessive and terribly abusive - that was the reason for Yuvraj to call the relationship off. She would keep calling him up all the time and disturb him. It was killing his confidence. This is especially true of the time he was in Pakistan - but Yuvi avoided any kind of retaliation."

Soon after her separation from husband Ali, Kim was dating Paltan actor Harshvardhan Rane. However, after severe public outings, reports started surfacing that the couple are not together anymore.

FACT CHECK: AMITABH BACHCHAN ADMITTED TO NANAVATI HOSPITAL?

Two months after Bollywood megastar Amitabh Bachchan recovered from COVID-19, it was reported by various media outlets that the actor was admitted to the Nanavati Hospital in Mumbai on Saturday.

However, DNA confirmed with their sources and have found out that Bachchan is NOT admitted to the hospital and is at his home in Mumbai. Media outlets reported that the 78-year-old was admitted for an injury and has been receiving treatment since Saturday which is not true. Earlier today, Amitabh Bachchan took to his Instagram account and shared a glimpse of a square in the Polish city of Wroclaw, which has been named after his late father, distinguished Hindi poet Harivansh Rai Bachchan. He called it a moment of immense pride for his family and India.

'Don't include me in your games':

Salman Khan confronts 'Bigg Boss 14' contestant Rubina Dilaik

After Bigg Boss 14 contestants Rubina Dilaik's recent comments against Salman Khan, the host in the Weekend Ka Vaar episode confronted Rubina. The TV actor had said that Salman had spoken to her condescendingly.

In the episode from yesterday, Salman advised Rubina to not use his name to attract eyeballs. He said, "Ab samaan wali baat main touch karu ya na touch karu, yeh aap mujhe bataye kyunki agar main isko touch karunga toh main ekdum bheetar iske ghus jaunga. Dekho aap andar khel rahi ho bahut accha khel rahi ho lekin iss khel main mujhe شامل mat karo aap (Now, shall I address the 'samaan' issue? Because if I do, then I will address it in detail. Look, you're playing well, but please don't include me in your games)." Salman further told Rubina, "Main apka competition nahi hoon, main apka host hoon, aap mere ghar mein reh rahe ho. Toh please, iss galatfemi mein mat rehein, kyunki yeh galatfemi ka gubaara apke sar pe photeega (I am not your competitor I am your host, you're staying in my house. So please, be aware of this, otherwise your plans might backfire)." Twitter was divided over the interaction. While some fans felt that Rubina had crossed a line, others felt that Salman shouldn't have made the remarks in the first place.

2020 Indian Film Festival of Melbourne to pay tribute to Rishi Kapoor, Irrfan Khan, Sushant Singh Rajput

Irrfan Khan, Rishi Kapoor and Sushant Singh Rajput's tragic deaths have left a huge void in the Indian film industry. The three actors passed away earlier this year and they are remembered fondly by their families and fans every day. To pay them a tribute, Indian Film Festival of Melbourne 2020 has decided to screen their films to commemorate their legacy. The films include Irrfan Khan's Song of Scorpion, Rishi Kapoor's 102 Not Out and Sushant Singh Rajput's Kedarnath. Talking about the same, Australian-Indian filmmaker Mitu Bhowmick Lange said in a statement, "Artistes live on through their legacy. These were some fine men who did some incredible movies that resonated with everyone. It was important for us to celebrate their memory. We handpicked some great films for our audience so that we relive a few of their lives with them. Their loss to the film industry is irrevocable but the magic of their movies will continue to entertain generations hereafter." Talking about The Song of Scorpions, the film is a Swiss-French-Singaporean Rajasthani language drama released in 2017. It was premiered at the 70th Locarno Film Festival and also starred Golshifteh Farahani as a tribal woman learning the ancient art of healing. The film is directed by Anup Singh and produced by Saskia Vischer, Shahaf Peled and Michel Merkt. 102 Not Out directed by Umesh Shukla starred Amitabh Bachchan as Rishi Kapoor's on-screen father. Whereas Kedarnath starring Sushant Singh Rajput was helmed by Abhishek Kapoor and marked Sara Ali Khan's Bollywood debut.

'You are the worst product of nepotism!': Kangana Ranaut hits back at Uddhav Thackeray for ganja fields comment

Actor Kangana Ranaut has hit back at Maharashtra Chief Minister Uddhav Thackeray after the leader spoke at the annual Dussehra rally of the party on Sunday and referred to the actor's infamous "PoK" tweet without taking her name. He said, "Mumbai is PoK, there are drug addicts everywhere – they are painting such a picture. They don't know in our house we grow tulsis, not ganja. Ganja fields are in your state, you know where, not in our Maharashtra," referring to Kangana's home state Himachal Pradesh. On Monday, to this, Kangana, in a series of tweets responded to the CM and wrote, "Chief Minister you are a very petty person, Himachal is called Dev Bhumi it has the maximum number of temples also no zero crime rate, yes it has a very fertile land it grows apples, kiwis, pomegranate, strawberries one can grow anything here." She further added, "You being a leader having such a vengeful, myopic and ill-informed views about a state which has been the abode of Lord Shiva and Maa Parvati along with many great saints like Markandya and Manu Rishi, Pandavas spent a large part of their exile in Himachal Pradesh." You should be ashamed of yourself chief minister, being a public servant you are indulging in petty fights, using your power to insult, damage and humiliate people who don't agree with you, you don't deserve the chair you have acquired by playing dirty politics. SHAME," she added. Kangana also referred to Sanjay Raut recently calling her "haramkhor" and said, "Raut called me Haramkhor now Uddhav called me namak haram, he is claiming I won't get food in my state if Mumbai does not give me shelter, shame on you I am your son's age this is how you speak to a self made single woman, Chief Minister you are the worse product of nepotism." She added, "Chief Minister I am not drunk on my father's power and wealth like you, if I wanted to be a nepotism product I could have stayed back in Himachal, I hail from a renowned family, I didn't want to live off on their wealth and favours, some people have self respect and self worth. The Shiv Sena-led coalition government has been at the receiving end of criticism by Kangana over the death of Sushant Singh in June this year.

Radhika Apte reveals why she married Benedict Taylor despite being 'not a big marriage person'

Actor Radhika Apte opened up about getting married to British musician Benedict Taylor in 2012 and said that though she doesn't believe in the institution of marriage she only got married because it was "easier to get a visa". Radhika, who has been in London since the lockdown with Benedict said this while she was talking to actor Vikrant Massey. The two were answering "other" questions about themselves that they are not usually asked in interviews. In response to the question "When did Radhika Apte get married?", she said, "Well, when I realised that it is easier to get a visa when you are married. I think there should be no boundaries. I am not a big marriage person, I don't believe in the institution. I got married because a visa was really a problem and we wanted to live together. I think that's not fair." On the work front, Radhika last appeared in Raat Akeli Hai, alongside Nawazuddin Siddiqui that was released on Netflix. The murder mystery marked the directorial debut of casting director Honey Trehan. Currently, Radhika is with Benedict in London, and in an interview with Hindustan Times, she opened up about her routine during self-isolation. "Just to have a routine was a normal thing. But, in this period, I ate well, exercised, tried to write and watch, and did nothing, without any pressure of having to be at any place. All of these have been really good things. But, there have been too many bad things, too," she had said.

Rahul Vaidya sparks 'nepotism' debate by nominating Jaan Kumar Sanu

In the nomination special episode of Bigg Boss 14 to be held on Monday, Rahul Vaidya sparks nepotism debate by nominating Jaan Kumar Sanu. The Indian Idol season one's second runner-up hits out at Kumar Sanu's son and said that he hates nepotism. This shocks everyone as per the latest promo. Nishant Singh Malkhani also tells Rahul that the nepotism topic doesn't make sense inside the house. Jaan also tells that he is fortunate that he is Kumar Sanu's son. He also tells Rahul not to talk ill about his father and their fight almost get physical. The channel airing Bigg Boss 14 shared the promo on their Instagram page and wrote, "Kal uthega #BB14 ke ghar mein #Nepotism ka bada mudda! Kaun hai sahi, kaun galat, dekhiye kal raat 10.30 baje only on #BiggBoss14! @rahulvaidyarkv @jaan.kumarsanu." Earlier during an interaction with DNA, Jaan had mentioned being a fan of Bigg Boss. He had said, "I am, actually. I have been a fan of the show for a very long time. I've seen all the seasons as an audience and viewer. And now I'm getting to participate in it. So that's a big thing for me. So I'm very, very excited about it..." When asked about his strategy, he has said, "Honestly speaking, since I've been watching the show for a very, very long time now, I have come to realize that you cannot have a fixed strategy to win this game because it is ever-changing. And it is very, very dynamic. Every season has some new outcome, some new situations that we did not predict before. I think the only strategy I would actually go in with is to be myself right from the beginning."

CSK vs KKR: Ravindra Jadeja sixes hand CSK win, leave KKR play-off hopes hanging by a thread

CSK VS KKR: CHAKRAVARTHY GOT DHONI AND DROPPED SAM CURRAN IN THE SAME OVER BUT KKR STILL MANAGED TO PULL IT BACK. AND THEN THEY LOST TO JADEJA.

Ravindra Jadeja put Kolkata Knight Riders (KKR) on IPL exit route with two sixes in the last over to win a match by six wickets that Chennai Super Kings (CSK) looked to have lost at different junctures. After Pat Cummins bowled an 18th over yielding only four and leaving CSK on 143/4 chasing 173, Lockie Ferguson kept it tight till the fourth ball when the dew did him in and Jadeja smacked a full toss for four. A no ball went for three, the free hit dispatched for six, an outside edge fetched four and from 146/4 after 18.3, CSK needed 10 off the last over.

Kamlesh Nagarkoti kept it to seven off the last two but then Jadeja smoked those sixes, finishing the night on 31 off 11 balls.

It took till their penultimate league game for KKR to bat as a unit. For the first time in 13 games, coach Brendon McCullum's fluid batting order—one which has had five openers and seven players at No. 4—survived a power play without losing a wicket.

Having tried a sweep first ball and perished against Kings XI Punjab, Nitish Rana left deliveries but that was okay because his opening partner Shubman Gill had started with successive boundaries. After getting to 10 off 17 balls, Rana attacked Michell Santner, sweeping two boundaries and swinging the left-arm spinner for a six to move to 24 off 21. From then on, Rana held the innings together using his feet against spinners, sweeping boundaries in an arc from square-leg to fine-leg and reaching his third half-century of the season.

CSK spinners had choked the runs but with three successive sixes off Karn Sharma in the 16th, Rana turned things around. That over yielded 19 and the next four overs fetched 47 as KKR reached 172/5. On way to that score, Rana got to his highest IPL score of 87 (61b; 4x10; 6x4) and Dinesh Karthik scored 21 off 10.

With Cummins hitting his line, KKR were really chirpy when CSK began. Shane Watson and Ruturaj Gaikwad added 50 for the first wicket till Varun Chakravarthy got the big Australian. Gaikwad again showed why he deserved to be playing more than his fifth game. He got to his second successive half-century hitting glorious drives between cover and mid-off sometimes moving away to make room and on other occasions, checking the shot. Having kept CSK under pressure till the 10th over, KKR got Rana to bowl and Ambati Rayudu and Gaikwad took 16 and 14 off the next from Ferguson. Nagarkoti then went for 12 and suddenly CSK were back in the game. Chakravarthy got Dhoni and dropped Sam Curran in the same over but KKR still managed to pull it back. And then they lost to Jadeja.

'It's just a game': Sakshi Dhoni writes heartfelt post after CSK fails to qualify for IPL 2020 playoffs

MS Dhoni's wife, Sakshi, reacted after Chennai Super Kings (CSK) failed to secure a spot in the Indian Premier League (IPL) 2020 playoffs on Sunday (October 25). Sakshi took to social media and posted an elongated heartfelt message claiming that it is just a game and "no one wants to lose but not all can be winners."

The last-placed side on the points table, CSK failed to make it into the playoffs after Rajasthan Royals defeated Mumbai Indians. Sakshi took to Instagram and shared a post which read: "It's just a game.. You win some you lose some!! Years gone by are witness to many enthralling victories and a few agonising defeats! Celebrating one and being heartbroken by the other!! Some reasonable response others not so... Some win, some lose and others miss...It's just a game!" "Many preachers and varied reactions! Allow emotions not to beat the very essence of sportsmanship.. It's just a game! No one wants to lose, but not all can be winners! When struck down, stunned, the walk back from the field seems long." "Jubilant sounds and sighs add to the pain, inner strength takes control It's all just a game!! You were winners then, you are winners now! True warriors are born to fight as they will always be Super Kings in our hearts and in our minds!!" she added. CSK on Sunday defeated Royal Challengers Bangalore (RCB) by eight wickets at the Dubai International Stadium. Ruturaj Gaikwad played an unbeaten knock of 65 runs, helping his team to chase down a target of 146 runs.

Hardik Pandya becomes first Indian player to achieve THIS unique feat in IPL history

Star Indian allrounder Hardik Pandya managed to achieve a unique feat during Mumbai Indians' 8-wicket loss against Rajasthan Royals (RR) in the IPL 2020 on Sunday (October). Hardik, who is widely renowned for his power-hitting and explosive display with the bat, was in top touch against RR and played a lightning 21-ball 60 innings for the Mumbai side. During his stormy knock, the allrounder struck four sixes in one over. RR skipper Steve Smith gave the ball to Ankit Rajput in search of a breakthrough but Pandya shot the Indian pacer for four maximums in his six deliveries. This was also the second time that Hardik managed to do strike four sixes in an over in the IPL which makes him the first Indian player in the league to do so. Opting to bat first, Mumbai Indians did not get off to a good start as opener Quinton de Kock (6) was clean bowled by Jofra Archer in the very first over of the innings. Ishan Kishan and Suryakumar Yadav then got together at the crease and the duo bought the innings back on track for Mumbai Indians.

Hardik Pandya's classy gesture towards 'Black Lives Matter' movement is taking over internet by storm

Mumbai Indians allrounder Hardik Pandya won millions of hearts as he became the first player in the IPL 2020 to take a knee to showcase his fullfledged support to the 'Black Lives Matter' movement during his side's loss to Rajasthan Royals at Sheikh Zayed Stadium on Sunday (October 25). In the match, Hardik played a lightning unbeaten knock of 60 off just 21 balls to take Mumbai Indians past the 190-run mark. During his quick knock, Pandya smashed seven sixes and two fours as well. The 27-year-old targeted Ankit Rajpoot and Kartik Tyagi's overs and smashed 54 off 13 balls from them. Hardik smashed his half-century in the 19th over and celebrated it by going down on a knee with his right arm raised to show solidarity against racism and support the 'Black Lives Matter' movement. Hardik posted a picture of his gesture on his Instagram and Twitter handle after the game with the caption, "BlackLivesMatter". The 'Black Lives Matter' movement had gained momentum after the death of an African-American man named George Floyd in May this year, following a police officer, later identified as Derek Chauvin, pressed his knee on Floyd's neck as suggested by the viral videos. Ever since Floyd's demise, many sportspersons have come out to talk about their experience with racism. Also, Sunrisers Hyderabad and West Indies all-rounder Jason Holder had expressed his disappointment over cricketers having no discussion over BLM in the IPL. Meanwhile, Mumbai Indians had to face a crushing defeat after Ben Stokes slammed a century to guide Rajasthan Royals to a comprehensive eight-wicket win. With this win, Rajasthan Royals has now moved to sixth place in the points table with 10 points while Mumbai Indians are still in the top spot with 14 points. Mumbai Indians will next lock horns with Royal Challengers Bangalore (RCB) on Wednesday, October 25.

RCB skipper Virat Kohli becomes first batsman in IPL history to achieve these TWO milestones

In the 'Kaveri derby' Chennai Super Kings (CSK) vs Royal Challengers Bangalore (RCB), the former team won by eight wickets at the Dubai International Stadium, Dubai. Despite the loss, the Virat Kohli-led RCB continues to remain at the third spot. The skipper himself had scored a half-century in 42-balls.

During the course of his innings, Kohli became the first batsman in IPL history to hit both 200 sixes and 500 fours. During his knock, the RCB captain became the third Indian and overall the fifth player to smash 200 IPL sixes. CSK captain MS Dhoni has hit the most IPL sixes among Indians (216), followed by Mumbai Indians (MI) captain Rohit Sharma (209).

As for the clash, CSK keep their dream to qualify for the IPL 2020 playoffs alive. MS Dhoni's side, who were at the bottom of the table have now climbed to the seventh spot.

Australia Tour of India 2020: Match Details, Schedule, Time Table, Venue and Squad Updates

The Board of Control for Cricket in India (BCCI) on Monday announced the squad for the upcoming limited-overs expedition against Australia. Both teams are going to play 3 match ODI series starting on 14 January 2020 at the famous Wankhede Stadium, Mumbai. India's premier Fast bowler Jasprit Bumrah has recovered from a back injury and been named in India's one-day international squad for their upcoming series. While Bhuvneshwar Kumar and Deepak Chahar are already injured and unfit, he will have a huge role to play. Bumrah, India's leading bowler at this year's World Cup with 18 wickets, sustained a stress fracture in his lower back and has been out of action since September. Opener Shikhar Dhawan has also returned for the matches in Mumbai (on January 14), Rajkot (Jan 17) and Bengaluru (Jan 19) after missing the recent ODI series against the West Indies due to a deep cut to his left knee. There are still no news for the return of MS Dhoni. In the recently phased interview of MSK Prasad, he clearly mentioned that he needs to play cricket first in order to be eligible for selection. Dhoni hasn't played any competitive cricket since the world cup final. Meanwhile the premier allrounder Hardik Pandya is recovering from the injury and being selected for the IND A squad for the NZ tour. Australia have also named their 14 men squad for this 3 match ODI series. The new young run machine Marnus Labuschagne is all set for an ODI debut, while the likes of Sean Abbott, Ashton Agar and Josh Hazlewood have also returned to the one-day set-up.

There was no room for Usman Khawaja, Glenn Maxwell, Marcus Stoinis or Nathan Lyon. All these players had a great domestic season but Australia is going through a transition phase and would like to bring new faces against the mighty Indians at their own backyard. Coach Langer and Finch have mentioned in their interviews that Maxwell stats haven't justified the potential that he brings to the table, but if he performs well he could be considered for the future series.

Here is the full squad for both the teams:

India squad: Virat Kohli, Rohit Sharma, Shikhar Dhawan, KL Rahul, Shreyas Iyer, Manish Pandey, Kedar Jadhav, Rishabh Pant (wk), Shivam Dube, Ravindra Jadeja, Yuzvendra Chahal, Kuldeep Yadav, Navdeep Saini, Jasprit Bumrah, Shardul Thakur, Mohammed Shami

SUNIL GAVASKAR REVEALS WHAT HE THINKS IS THE REASON BEHIND KXIP'S COMEBACK

It must have been difficult to be KL Rahul during the initial stage of the league phase in IPL 2020. The stylish batsman was leading an IPL side for the first time and doing almost everything right as a batsman. His efforts as a wicket-keeper were an added bonus for his team and there wasn't much to find fault with his captaincy too. Yet, Kings XI Punjab, his team, was finding different ways to lose matches. His team lost their opening match in a super over. But Rahul took matters in his hand and stroked a fluent century against Royal Challengers Bangalore to get the season going for his team. He took over the leadership in the Orange Cap table - most runs in the season - and continues to be on top till now.

But his performance with the bat weren't enough to stop his team from lost 5 matches on the trot. After 7 matches, which was the half-way stage in the league phase, KXIP were rock bottom with just 2 points and almost everyone considered the campaign doomed. But Rahul and his coach Anil Kumble didn't. They rank in important changes in the team, kept the adrenaline pumping and what started a rearguard, which is now threatening to end with a place in the play-offs. KXIP take on KKR in a crucial encounter on Monday as the winner of the match will end up occupying the fourth place in the points. The Kings have won four matches on the trot, which includes victories against all highly fancied sides. Former India captain and veteran commentator Sunil Gavaskar feels this has been possible due to the fighting spirit of KXIP coach and former India great Anil Kumble. Speaking exclusively on Star Sports show Cricket Live, Gavaskar praised KL Rahul for his captaincy and spoke on how Anil Kumble is a fighter and how his spirit has been transferred to KXIP. "You know, they have just found the winning way! They seem to have lost that at the start of the tournament. Remember, every time they were close to winning and they went into the super over in their first-ever game and then again, after that they were losing in the final overs. "Then, somewhere down the line, they found that key that takes them to a win and the last few games, they have played exceptional cricket. Last match, to defend a 126 takes a lot of doing, takes a lot of self-belief and that's what they showed," the Indian cricket legend opined.
