VICKY KAUSHAL TRANSFORMS INTO THE REVOLUTIONARY IN ROUSING DRAMA

SARDAR UDHAM TRAILER: VICKY KAUSHAL DOES JUSTICE TO HIS ROLE AS THE FREEDOM FIGHTER. PRODUCED BY RISING SUN FILMS AND BACKED BY RONNIE LAHIRI AND SHEEL KUMAR, SARDAR UDHAM RELEASES ON OCTOBER 16 ON AMAZON PRIME VIDEO.

Makers released the first full trailer of Vicky Kaushal-starrer biopic Sardar Udham on Thursday. The video promises an intriguing, well-told narrative revolving around the life of the late revolutionary freedom fighter Sardar Udham Singh who assassinated the lieutenant governor of Punjab at the time of the Jallianwala Bagh massacre in Amritsar, Michael O'Dwyer. The action-packed promo further unveiled the identity of Sardar Udham for the audience, and the kind of dangerous life he lead. We also see his character question the status quo and ask them the difference between a murder and a protest. The film looks beautifully shot, here's hoping the story it has to tell is also that engaging. Earlier, the makers had shared a teaser from the film which gave us a glimpse of the kind of life Sardar Udham Singh led. Kaushal had even shared a video post on his Instagram handle with the caption, "His name etched in our history, his mission shook the entire nation. It's an incredible honour to step into the shoes of Sardar Udham Singh. Watch #SardarUdhamOnPrime, Oct 16 @primevideoin #SardarUdham."

SARA ALI KHAN MAKES HEARTS RACE IN MULTI COLOUR SAREE AT GLOBAL CITIZEN EVENT, FANS GO GAGA OVER HER LOOK

Sara Ali Khan, one of the youngest participants in the Global Citizen concert, chose to wear a saree for the event while representing India, which has left netizens very impressed. The actress looked stunning in a bright-colored saree with a bindi on her forehead for the event, and her sartorial choice won hearts. The actress is known for her ethereal Indian costume on red carpets and award shows, but this time she has embraced Indian culture by wearing a saree on the international stage. Sara began and completed her statement by repeating namaste with her hands clasped, a nod to her Indian heritage. Her confidence and articulation made netizens proud as well. The Global Citizen event is a 24-hour music festival that urged world leaders, charities, and companies to safeguard the planet, reduce poverty, and address climate change, famine, and vaccine equity this year.

SHEHNAZ GILL-DILJEET DOSANJH'S FILM ABOUT 'ACCIDENTAL PREGNANCY' PROMISES A HEARTY LAUGH

Diljit Dosanjh, an actor and musician, has released the trailer for his next Punjabi comedy 'Honsla Rakh'. Sonam Bajwa and Shehnaaz Gill also star in the flick. Diljit plays an NRI in Canada who gets his wife, Shehnaaz, pregnant by accident. Even before the kid is born, the two file for divorce, and she wants him to have custody of the child. He eventually learns to care for his son and even builds a great bond with him, despite his ups and downs and filthy nappies. Years later, he falls in love with Sonam, who plays him. As they come up with strategies to court her, he makes it his mission to make her his son's new mummy. However, their intentions are thrown into disarray when Shehnaaz, the biological mother, reappears in their lives.

SHAHID AFRIDI MAKES BIG STATEMENT AGAINST INDIA AFTER NEW ZEALAND, ENGLAND CANCEL PAKISTAN TOUR

Pakistan faced a severer blow after New Zealand and England cancelled their respective tours and former Men in Green captain Shahid Afridi expressed his disappointment over the same. While the Kiwis had decided to abandon their entire tour just hours before the first ODI in Rawalpindi on September 17 following reports of a security threat, England also withdrew from the men and women tour citing players' mental health as a reason. However, the New Zealand Cricket board did not share details of the security threat with the Pakistan Cricket Board or with the Pakistan government. Expressing his views over the situation, Shahid Afridi said that the Kiwi players are loved in Pakistan but what they have done was "unforgivable" as they flew out their players soon after the mail.

TIGER SHROFF-TARA SUTARIA STARRER 'HEROPANTI 2' RELEASE DATE ANNOUNCED WITH A FIERCE NEW POSTER

Tiger Shroff and Tara Sutaria-starrer 'Heropanti 2' has been one of the highly-anticipated movies of the year. And now, after the announcement of the opening up of theatres in Maharashtra, 'Heropanti 2' has gotten a new release date, and makers have announced the news by sharing a new fierce poster. Tiger and Tara updated movie buffs with the new release date through their Instagram handles. The movie will be coming to the theatres on Eid, next year. Sharing a new poster, Tiger wrote, "Happy to announce that our film #Heropanti2 will be releasing in theatres near you on Eid 2022! Agli Eid bitayenge aapke saath." While Tara wrote, "Thrilled to announce HEROPANTI2 will be in cinemas on Eid.. April 29, 2022." The new poster of the action-packed film unveiled Tara's look for the first time. The actors could be seen dressed in black and appears like secret agents. While Tiger looks suave as always in a black suit and a white shirt underneath, Tara looks alluring in a black off-shoulder bodycon dress. For the unversed, apart from Tiger and Tara Sutaria, actor Nawazuddin Siddiqui, whose 'Serious Men' was recently nominated for the International Emmy Awards 2021, is also a part of the film. The film is the sequel of Tiger and Kriti Sanon's 2014 debut film 'Heropanti'. The first look poster of 'Heropanti 2' was unveiled in February 2020. The movie will be directed by Ahmed Khan, who also directed Tiger's last release, 'Baaghi 3'. The movie was earlier slated to release on December 3 this year, then the makers postponed the date to May 6, 2022, after the Maharashtra government announced that all theatres and cinema halls will be allowed to reopen from October 22. In the latest development, the makers have fixed the final release date and preponed it to April 22, next year.

AAMIR KHAN'S 'LAAL SINGH CHADDHA' RELEASE PUSHED TO FEBRUARY 2022

MUMBAI, (IANS) The release date of Aamir Khan's 'Laal Singh Chaddha' has been pushed back once again due to delays amid the Covid-19 pandemic. The Aamir Khan and Kareena Kapoor Khan-starrer, which was expected to release around Christmas this year, will now be releasing on Valentine's Day next year. Aamir Khan Productions made the announcement via an Instagram post on Sunday. The post reads: "We welcome the decision of the administration to allow cinemas to re-open from 22nd Oct." "Due to the delays faced as a result of the pandemic, we will be unable to release our film, 'Laal Singh Chaddha', this Christmas." "We will now be releasing 'Laal Singh Chaddha' on Valentine's Day 2022." The announcement comes just a day after Maharashtra Chief Minister Uddhav Thackeray on Saturday announced that all cinema halls and drama theatres in the state will reopen from October 22. 'Laal Singh Chaddha' reunites Aamir Khan with his '3 Idiots' co-stars Kareena Kapoor Khan and Mona Singh. The film also features Naga Chaitanya and Manav VJ in key roles. Directed by Advait Chandan, 'Laal Singh Chaddha' is an adaptation of the 1994 Hollywood film 'Forrest Gump' which was based on Winston Groom's 1986 novel of the same name. It is produced by Aamir Khan Productions, Viacom18 Studios and Paramount Pictures.

DEEPIKA PADUKONE SHARES UNSEEN PHOTO OF RANVEER SINGH FROM '83', MAKES BIG ANNOUNCEMENT ABOUT FILM'S RELEASE

Finally, the wait is over. The huge news was made on Sunday by Ranveer Singh, Deepika Padukone, and the producers. The much-anticipated cricket drama '83,' starring Ranveer Singh, is due to hit theatres this holiday season. The film follows the Indian cricket team's maiden World Cup victory in 1983, when they overcame the West Indies in the final to claim the title. '83' will be released in Hindi, Tamil, Telugu, Kannada, and Malayalam, among other languages. Deepika took to Instagram and shared the news with the caption "The Team that took the entire world by storm! Experience the glorious victory of Team 83 in Cinemas this Christmas! Releasing in Hindi, Tamil, Telugu, Kannada & Malayalam!" Due to the coronavirus pandemic, the big-budget, multi-starrer film was one of the first to be pushed back from its initial April 2020 release date. It was meant to be released on June 4 this year, but it was once again postponed because to the epidemic, which caused movie theatres to close. The movie's producers, as well as theatre owners and fans, have been waiting for the official release date to be announced.

THE MUCH-AWAITED TRAILER OF ZEE5 GLOBAL ORIGINAL ‘BREAK POINT’ OUT NOW!

~ The bromance to break-up story of tennis legends, Leander Paes and Mahesh Bhupathi~
~ Co-directed and produced by Ashwiny Iyer Tiwari and Nitesh Tiwari, BREAK POINT is an intriguing 7-part series that will premiere on 1st October on ZEE5 ~

MUMBAI: ZEE5 Global, the world’s largest streaming platform for South Asian content brings audiences the intriguing and untold story of Lee-Hesh in ‘BREAK POINT’, a 7-part series which will not only construct their epic tennis matches but also deconstruct their relationship, both on and off the court. Apart from their accomplishments on the tennis court, the charismatic duo is known for their off-court lives and their public split which broke the heart of the nation. All this will now be brought to life by celebrated filmmakers Ashwiny Iyer Tiwari and Nitesh Tiwari of Dangal, Chhichhore, Bareilly Ki Barfi and Panga fame in ZEE5’s Original series BREAK POINT.

Trailer link: <https://cutt.ly/ZEE5BreakPointTrailerCA>

While the posters generated massive intrigue and curiosity, the trailer of the highly anticipated series is finally out and is guaranteed to stir up conversation. This is the first time that the tennis icons are getting candid and honest about their split and putting speculations to rest by each narrating their side of the story. The trailer also features tennis icons Sania Mirza, Bob Bryan, Mike Bryan among other family and friends and goes on to show Lee-Hesh’s iconic partnership which put Indian tennis on the world map and also led to them being the most feared doubles pair during the late 1990s.

Says Nimisha Pandey, Head, Hindi Originals, ZEE5, “We are extremely delighted to unveil the first look of Breakpoint. It is a human story of a partnership, a friendship and a rivalry that impacted the careers and lives of two of India’s most prolific players. Through this 7-part series, the viewer will experience the beauty of the game and true sportsmanship but will also see the vulnerability of success. What makes our stories relatable for varied consumer cohorts are their authenticity and relevance. At ZEE5, we not only understand the varied visions of our creators but are also immersed in the kaleidoscope of worlds that make up our viewers’ realities. With the industry’s most prolific storytellers Ashwiny Iyer Tiwari and Nitesh Tiwari telling this complex and immensely engaging story, we hope to win our viewers’ hearts with Break Point”.

Speaking about the offering, Archana Anand, Chief Business Officer, ZEE5 Global said, “We are proud to be narrating this very special untold story of India’s tennis legends to our audiences across the globe. BREAK POINT captures the riveting story of these two inspiring sportsmen and gives audiences a ring-side view into their emotional relationship, their legendary wins on-court and heart-breaking split off-court. This 7 part series is one for the ages, and will have audiences experience Lee-Hesh’s journey like never before”.

Say filmmakers Ashwiny Iyer Tiwari and Nitesh Tiwari, who will be co-directing a project for the very first time, “We have always been more intrigued by the humans behind the icons and that’s what we’ve tried to capture in BREAK POINT. Both Leander and Mahesh are massive sports champions but, in this series, they are two friends opening their hearts and showing emotion to the world. We feel honoured to get the chance to tell their untold story which will also give the dos and Don’ts of great partnerships to the aspiring youth of our country. We are elated to partner with ZEE5 for this one”.

Leander Paes says, “It feels surreal to see myself on screen, laying my life out there for the world to see. But I realize that a lot has been said and speculated and there’s no better way to put it to rest than by addressing it head-on. So, I am happy that we are getting a chance to tell our story firsthand and hope that the audience continues to admire our on-court partnership and respect our reasons to break-up”. Mahesh Bhupathi adds, “All partnerships go through turbulence and highs and lows and so did ours. While the world knows about our on-court partnership, this is the first time that they will get to know about our off-court lives and relationship. However, that should not take away our victories and achievements as despite our differences, Lee-Hesh made history and we are proud of that”.

‘BREAK POINT’ marks ZEE5’s first partnership with filmmakers, Ashwiny Iyer Tiwari and Nitesh Tiwari under their banner, Earthsky Production. The 7-part series will premiere on ZEE5 on 1st October and will be available in English, Hindi, Tamil and Telugu.

Users can download the ZEE5 app from Google Play Store / iOS App Store, on Roku devices, Samsung Smart TVs, Apple TVs, Android TVs, and Amazon Fire Stick. ZEE5 is also available on www.ZEE5.com.

SALMAN KHAN UNVEILS NEW CHALLENGES FOR CONTESTANTS IN 'BIGG BOSS 15'

MUMBAI, (IANS) Bollywood superstar Salman Khan said that he has had the longest association with 'Bigg Boss' and he is happy to return as the host of 'Bigg Boss 15'. He was interacting with the media during a recent press conference in Nagpur. While attending the media through video conferencing he said: "It is always a great pleasure to come back to hosting Bigg Boss, a show that I share such a long-standing association with. Like the past successful seasons, the new season of the show will be even more exciting, as the contestants get ready for a wild ride in the jungle with VishwasunTREE accompanying them in their journey. Rest assured this season is about to witness 'dangal' like never before. Buckle up, it is going to be an excursion to remember as it's 'sankat in jungle' this year." He added further about the show: "There will be 250 cameras looking out for every movement and contestants will be given a small survival kit in the jungle." Salman Khan said that it will not be easy for the contestants to face all the challenges as they have to spend five months away from their family and home. "It won't be an easy journey for the contestants as they have to be away from their family, being worried about them like if anyone has got Covid and other tensions. But they need to be strong as this is all about this game. The contestants have to show their real selves and those who manage to face the challenges by being physically and mentally strong really hats off to them." The new season of 'Bigg Boss' will see contestants facing number of challenges as the contestants have to fight tooth and nail for their survival in the jungle. Be it finding a bed to sleep, resources to cook food, place to perform daily chores, it is going to be a wild ride for the inmates. Shamita Shetty and Nishant Bhatt will make their way in 'Bigg Boss 15' and will be seen inside the house with other contestants including Umar Riaz and Donal Bisht. Manisha Sharma, Chief Content Officer of Hindi Mass Entertainment, Viacom18, said: "This season, we have given a whole new spin to the theme of the show by putting the contestants in a jungle wherein they will be riddled with new challenges and intense moments right from the beginning. We have also introduced a speaking tree called VishwasunTREE that will add to the inmates' hurdles and a lot more excitement to the show." The new season will premiere on October 2 at 9.30 pm and thereafter air every Monday to Friday at 10.30 pm and Saturday and Sunday at 9.30 pm on COLORS.

RACING TO THE FINISH LINE IN LIFE & ON THE TRACK: WATCH THE TRAILER OF ZEE5 GLOBAL ORIGINAL RASHMI ROCKET NOW

MUMBAI : ZEE5 Global, the largest streaming platform for South Asian content, is bringing you an edge-of-the-seat sports drama RASHMI ROCKET, headlined by the incredibly talented Taapsee Pannu. Made in collaboration with Ronnie Screwvala's RSVP & Mango People Media, RASHMI ROCKET has been directed by Akarsh Khurana. The highly anticipated film will premiere on ZEE5 Global on 15th October, and promises a unique storytelling experience with its unparalleled content.

Watch the trailer here: <https://cutt.ly/ZEE5RashmiRocketTrailer>

Set in the salt marshes of Kutch, RASHMI ROCKET is about a young girl from a small village, blessed with a gift. She's an incredibly fast runner who dreams of crossing the finish line. In the journey to fulfilling her dreams, she soon realizes that the race to the finish line is peppered with many hurdles, and what seems like an athletic contest turns into her personal battle for respect, honour, and even her very identity.

Living up to the movie title, the trailer of RASHMI ROCKET showcases an inspiring narrative of its lead protagonist and her journey to become RASHMI ROCKET. It's full of impactful dialogues, emotions, and a lot of drama with Taapsee Pannu's acting prowess taking centre stage. The versatile actress appears strong and sensitive in equal parts which balance the palpable energy of the film. Giving her a thrust is the impeccable and talented supporting cast. Don't miss the moment with Taapsee holding India's flag that will surely give you goosebumps and the belief that the trailer was worth the wait!

Always the one to take on hard-hitting and socially relevant subjects, Taapsee Pannu says, "This film is a very different special. I've always been approached when either the script or the director is ready to make the film but one line of this story fell in my lap in Chennai and then from there to it becoming a full-fledged film has been a feeling I haven't experienced with any other film before. Everyone was just so sure about the story from day 1 that it was never a tough job to convince any of the stakeholders to join hands and give their best for this film. Hence the result of this film will affect me a lot more than my other films. Also, I'm extremely proud of it."

Says filmmaker Akarsh Khurana, "When Pranjal and Taapsee got Nanda's storey idea to me, I was instantly hooked because while it is a film that covers a lot of ground, it is essentially about the triumph of the human spirit. It also offered the opportunity to tackle some serious issues, while still being emotional and gripping. I couldn't wait to sink my teeth into it. And now I can't wait for people to see the final outcome."

Adds producer Ronnie Screwvala, "So many immensely talented youth do not reach their full potential or even have opportunities owing to the obstacles the system and society throw at them. RASHMI ROCKET is one such example of someone who overcame those hurdles and faced those obstacles head on. It's a story of resilience, determination and above all the fighting human spirit."

Says Pranjal Khandhdiya of Mango People Media, "While several films have been made on sports, RASHMI ROCKET isn't just about struggles on the field, but in life; struggles that women in the sports arena continue to face. The story needed to be brought to life with great sensitivity and craft and who better than Taapsee to take on the challenge."

Archana Anand, Chief Business Officer, ZEE5 Global, said, "Audiences today worldwide look for stories that not only entertain but also those that inspire and uplift them; a slice of life, rich stories about real people and real situations. Richly adding now to our offering on ZEE5 is RASHMI ROCKET, a gripping story that brings us a very real narrative, brought to life through riveting performances, and we're sure this story will touch a deep chord with our audiences."

Produced by Ronnie Screwvala, Neha Anand and Pranjal Khandhdiya, 'RASHMI ROCKET' is written by Nanda Periyasamy, Aniruddha Guha and Kanika Dhillon and also stars Supriya Pathak, Abhishek Banerjee, Priyanshu Painyuli and Supriya Pilgaonkar.

RASHMI ROCKET premieres on ZEE5 Global on 15th October.

Users can download the ZEE5 app from Google Play Store / iOS App Store, on Roku devices, Samsung Smart TVs, Apple TVs, Android TVs, and Amazon Fire Stick. ZEE5 is also available on www.ZEE5.com.

HUMA QURESHI TO WALK THE TASHKENT FILM FEST RED CARPET

MUMBAI, (IANS) Actress Huma Qureshi is all geared up for the Tashkent Film Festival. On Monday, she left for the prestigious festival, which has a long Indian association dating back to Raj Kapoor's visit to its inaugural edition in 1968. Once a cultural showpiece of the Soviet Union, the Festival is now hosted by Uzbekistan.

Huma will walk the red carpet and also be a part of events such as 'New Uzbekistan', which will be dedicated to youth and public health, 'Pearl of the Silk Road' and 'Days of World Cinema'. The actress was much-applauded for her role in the political web series "Maharani", inspired by the rise of Rabri Devi in Bihar. She also appeared in the Zack Snyder zombie heist film, "Army of the Dead", which had a successful run on Netflix.

The Festival, which starts on Tuesday and continues till October 3, will be attended by international celebrities such as Timur Bekmambetov, Luc Besson, Gerard Depardieu, Rob Minkoff, and Steven Seagal.

ADVERTISING BODY HONOURS ANIL KAPOOR AS BRAND ENDORSER OF THE YEAR

MUMBAI, (IANS) Actor Anil Kapoor has been awarded the Brand Endorser of the Year award by the International Advertising Association (IAA) here recently. Anil, who currently endorses 13 brands, was awarded at the IAA Leadership Summit. Talking about the honour, Anil tells IANS: "It is humbling to receive the Brand Endorser of the Year Award by IAA. Nothing feels better than knowing brands trust you with their products and are ready to mount the campaign on your shoulder. For me, a brand endorsement is more of a responsibility than a job." International Advertising Association, with IAA Leadership Awards, honours Excellence in Marketing that has had a direct impact on a product or service in terms of overall growth for the brand and company every year.

VICKY KAUSHAL-STARRER 'SARDAR UDHAM' TO RELEASE DIGITALLY ON OCT 16

KKR DEFEAT DELHI CAPITALS BY 3 WICKETS AND 10 BALLS TO SPARE IN SHARJAH, IPL TWITTER HANDLE.

KKR bowlers strangle Delhi Capitals, win by 3 wickets and 10 balls to spare

THIS IS ONLY THE SECOND TIME IN IPL HISTORY DC FAILED TO HIT A SINGLE SIX IN AN INNINGS WHEN THEY BATTED ALL 20 OVERS

Kolkata Knight Riders (KKR) bowlers had already done the damage and made it easy for their batsmen to chase as Delhi Capitals (DC) lose their Indian Premier League (IPL) encounter at the Sharjah Cricket Stadium on Tuesday.

This is only the second time in IPL history DC failed to hit a single six in an innings when they batted all 20 overs. The first instance was against Rajasthan Royals in Mumbai earlier in the season.

The KKR side won the match by three wickets but they too had to struggle at moments against the Delhi bowlers who took seven wickets. Shubman Gill (30) and Venkatesh Iyer (14) gave the side a good start but then wickets fell. Rahul Tripathi (9) could not do much and skipper Eoin Morgan had no input as he was out for a duck. Nitish Rana (36*) was the highest run-scorer for KKR with cameos from Dinesh Karthik (12) and Sunil Narine (21).

As for Delhi, leaving Axar Patel, the rest of the bowlers took wickets. Avesh Khan lead the troop with three wickets, while Anrich Nortje, Kagiso Rabada, Lalit Yadav and Ravichandran Ashwin all took a wicket each. Earlier, the KKR bowlers put on a clinical show to restrict DC to 127/9. For Kolkata, Sunil Narine, Venkatesh Iyer and Lockie Ferguson scalped two wickets each while Tim Southee returned with one. For Delhi Capitals, Steve Smith and Rishabh Pant both played knocks of 39 each. Put in to bat first, Delhi got off to an okayish start as the team gathered 39 runs in the first six overs with a loss of one wicket. Lockie Ferguson sent back Shikhar Dhawan to the dugout in the second last over of the first powerplay. DC opener walked back after scoring 24 off 20 balls. In the 7th over of the match, Sunil Narine struck and sent former DC skipper Shreyas Iyer back to the hut. Steve Smith was then joined by captain Rishabh Pant on the pitch and the duo started stabilising the ship for Delhi.

After struggling to score runs for a couple of overs, Steve Smith was clean bowled by Lockie Ferguson in the 13th over of the innings. Steve Smith walked back after scoring 39 off 34 balls. Shimron Hetmyer (4 off 5) soon followed the DC opener as Venkatesh Iyer got his first in the next over. DC soon found themselves in more trouble after Sunil Narine sent back Lalit Yadav for a three-ball duck in the 15th over of the innings. Axar Patel followed Yadav after a five-ball duck in the next over, as Venkatesh Iyer got his second wicket of the match. DC crossed the 100-run mark after 17 overs as their score read 102/6. Capitals finished with 127/9 after twenty overs as R Ashwin, Rishabh Pant, and Kagiso Rabada lost their wickets in the last over of the innings.

ICC T20 WORLD CUP: BCCI AND EMIRATES CRICKET WANT CROWD FOR FINAL, SEEK PERMISSION FROM UAE AUTHORITIES

While the ICC T20 World Cup is being held in Oman and UAE from October 17, the hosting rights are with the Board of Control for Cricket in India (BCCI). And the BCCI along with the Emirates Cricket Board (ECB) has sought permission to have a capacity crowd at the Dubai International Stadium on the night of the final -- November 14.

Speaking to ANI, sources in the know of developments said the Indian board is keen to have 25,000 people watch the final of the showpiece event and permission for the same has been sought from the UAE authorities.

"The BCCI and the ECB is keen to have a capacity crowd for the final. It would be an electric atmosphere if permission for the same is granted keeping all protocols in mind. The boards have sought permission from the authorities, keeping fingers crossed," the source said. The IPL has already seen a return of fans in the UAE with an eye on COVID-19 protocols. As per the regulations -- also shared with the eight franchises -- fans going to the Dubai International Cricket Stadium don't need to get a PCR test done 48 hours prior to entry into the stands, but will need double COVID-19 vaccination proof. Things are slightly different in Sharjah when it comes to the age of fans allowed entry into stadiums. The minimum age required for entry into the Sharjah Cricket Stadium is 16+ years. While a vaccination report is required, the fans also need to carry PCR test results valid for no more than 48 hours prior to entering the venue. A green status on the Al Hosn App is a must for those keen to watch the games. At the Sheikh Zayed Stadium in Abu Dhabi, once again, fans above 16 must carry vaccination proof as well as PCR test results valid no more than 48 hours prior to entering the venue. Those in the 12-15 age bracket don't need vaccination proof but must carry PCR test report. Those below 12 must be accompanied by adults who are above 21.

'UNFORTUNATELY WON'T BE AGAIN, BUT...': DAVID WARNER'S REPLY TO FAN SPECULATING END OF SRH STINT

Like Mumbai Indians (MI) have Rohit Sharma, Royal Challengers Bangalore (RCB) have Virat Kohli, the Sunrisers Hyderabad (SRH) side was known for having David Warner. The man led the side towards Indian Premier League (IPL) victory in the 2016 season, defeating RCB by 8 runs in the final. From being the leading run-scorer to even entertaining fans online performing to Telugu songs - Warner gave everything for Hyderabad. However, one bad season saw him lose his captaincy and even getting benched. Not just that, in the clash against Rajasthan Royals (RR), the Australian batsman was not even present at the stadium. While SRH won the match, Warner was seen cheering for the team from his hotel room and sharing pictures of the same on his Instagram story. In fact, SRH had posted a picture after the completion of 10 overs during the first innings against RR and fans flooded the post asking where was Warner. The fan wrote: "Is Warner in the stadium, We didn't spot him." While this fan was not the only one, many had the same question in mind. But Warner was sweet to answer the fans like he always does, but his statement did not sit well. The Aussie star replied to that fan saying, "Unfortunately won't be against but keep supporting, please".

MS DHONI TO RETIRE FROM IPL AFTER THIS SEASON? THIS FORMER CRICKETER SAYS THIS

Cheennai Super Kings skipper Mahendra Singh Dhoni has already retired from international cricket in 2020 but he is still leading CSK from the front in the IPL. Dhoni was recently appointed Team India mentor by the BCCI for the upcoming T20 World Cup 2021 next month. Now the question on CSK's fans mind is whether Dhoni will remain the skipper of the franchise in IPL 2022 or not. Former Australian bowler Brad Hogg claims that Dhoni may retire from the IPL too after the end of the current season. According to Hogg, Dhoni is not not as sharp as he used to be in his heydays and his reflexes are also not quick. "I think he's going to retire at the end of the year from IPL cricket. The way he got out to Chakravarthy the other day with the wrong un', there was a huge gap between bat and pad. I think the reflexes of the 40-year-old are just starting to wane. His keeping has been sensational," Hogg said on his YouTube channel.

SREESANTH FINALLY BREAKS SILENCE ON IPL SPOT-FIXING SAGA, REVEALS SHOCKING DETAILS

Former India fast bowler S Sreesanth has finally opened up over the IPL spot-fixing saga which ended his cricketing career. It may be recalled that in 2013, Sreesanth and two other Rajasthan Royals cricketers was arrested for their alleged involvement in a spot-fixing scandal. Sreesanth has said that why would he do such a thing that too for merely Rs 10 lakhs. "I had played the Irani Trophy and was looking to play the South African series, so that we can win in September 2013. We were going early, and it moves better in September. My goal was to play that series. A person like that, why would I do it, that too for 10 lakhs?, I am not talking big but I used to have bills of around 2 lakh when I partied around," he told Sportskeeda. Sreesanth thanked his family and fans for helping him get out of the bad situation. "In my life, I have only helped and given belief. I have helped a lot of people, and those prayers helped me get out of this," he added.

STOP CURSING INDIA FOR KIWIS, ENGLAND PULL OUTS, BCCI OFFICIAL TO PAKISTAN

NEW DELHI, (IANS) Pakistan Cricket Board (PCB) has recently faced a severe blow after New Zealand and England cancelled their respective tours. The Kiwis cited security as a reason whereas England stated the 'mental and physical well-being' of the players was an issue. The cancellation of the tours has affected Pakistan financially and 'morally' as well. The newly appointed chairman of PCB Ramiz Raja lambasted the two nations for abandoning their respective series. However, now some of the Pakistan ministers and former cricketers have started 'dragging India's' name in their statements. They are also allegedly blaming the Indian cricket board (BCCI) for the cancellation of their tours. To this, a senior BCCI official told IANS that Pakistan has an old habit of 'using' India's name in all their 'big or small news' that too without any proof. "We wish Ramiz Raja good luck...Pakistan cricket reaches new heights under him. We want to clear one thing that the BCCI has no role in the cancellation of England and New Zealand tours to Pakistan." "We don't have time for all this...And also, I don't know why some ex-Pakistan players are cursing the IPL (Indian Premier League) for no reason? I read somewhere that Raja said that the Aussie players have even changed their DNA for the sake of the money they make by playing in the IPL. He accused Aussies of playing happily against India without their usual aggressive approach. "Now from where the IPL came here? What kind of frustration is that? We understand that you are feeling bad but there is no need to drag India everywhere," the official added. New Zealand abandoned their tour hours before the first ODI was scheduled to take place in Rawalpindi on September 17, because of a security threat. Days later, the England team pulled out, citing the mental and physical well-being of players. Pakistan's information minister Fawad Chaudhry had said the "e-mail was generated from India through a VPN showing the location of Singapore".

VIRAT KOHLI’S RCB LOOKS TO BUILD WINNING MOMENTUM AGAINST STRUGGLING RR

A thumping win over defending champions Mumbai Indians boosting their confidence, Royal Challengers Bangalore would look to build on the momentum when they take on a struggling Rajasthan Royals in their Indian Premier League match on Wednesday. The Virat Kohli-led RCB are currently at third spot with 12 points from 10 matches and a win over RR will virtually put them in the play-offs. On the other hand, with eight points from 10 matches, it will be a make-or-break outing for RR as a loss on Wednesday can put them in a tight situation in their bid for a last-four berth. RCB did not have the best of starts after the IPL's resumption as they lost two consecutive matches, including the forgettable nine-wicket defeat to Kolkata Knight Riders where they made just 92 runs. They were then outplayed by Chennai Super Kings though Kohli and Devdutt Padikkal came good with 53 and 70 respectively. The previous match against MI, however, gave them their first win after the IPL's resumption with Kohli hitting his second consecutive fifty — 51 — and Maxwell also coming good (37-ball 56). Kohli, who is stepping down from RCB captaincy after this season, would look to continue his good form. South African legend AB de Villiers, on the other hand, needs a big one after scores of 0, 12, 11 while Maxwell will be keen to stay in good touch with the T20 World Cup not far. On the bowling front, Harshal Patel is the star with six wickets from three matches, including a hat-trick in the last match, and Yuzvendra Chahal is also in fine form with five dismissals. A bit of worry is New Zealand fast bowler Kyle Jamieson, who has not taken any wicket from the two matches he has played so far. Rajasthan, on the other hand, have been outplayed by their respective opponents in their last two matches after winning their first game by two runs. Except for captain Sanju Samson and Yashasvi Jaiswal, most of the RR batsmen are struggling. Lone ranger Samson hit 70 and 82 after scoring four runs in the first match but other batsmen have let the team down. In Monday's match against Sunrisers Hyderabad, it was Samson again who took his side to 164 for 5 with a well-calculated 82 on a sticky wicket where stroke-making was difficult. However, the score proved insufficient as RR lost by seven wickets, which dented their play-off chances as they remained at the sixth spot with eight points. Among bowlers, Kartik Tyagi (3 wickets), Chetan Sakariya (4 wickets) and Mustafizur Rahman (3 wickets) have done reasonably well for the side.

Sun rises late as bottom-placed Hyderabad defeat Rajasthan Royals

In the end, it was a facile win for Sunrisers Hyderabad that took them to four points from 10 matches. But it was a win after all, something they had been desperately searching for. Jason Roy's 60 off 42 balls set up the seven-wicket victory with nine balls remaining. Kane Williamson put the finishing touches, scoring a classy 51 not out off 41 balls. As the gloom was partially lifted in the SRH camp, Rajasthan Royals slipped into uncertainty.

ROY RACES ON DEBUT

He was stepping into big shoes. Dropping David Warner despite his recent string of low scores hinted at shake-up. The Australian opener had started the season as SRH captain. A mid-tournament captaincy snub later, he was out of the playing XI even. Roy was under pressure at the outset. But his England experience and quality saw him through. Anything in the hitting zone, he attacked. Three fours in a Chris Morris over helped him up the ante. His ability to maximise the width was first-class. His clobbering of leg-spinner Rahul Tewatia – a six and three fours in an over – was even more exciting. All the while, Royals bowlers bowled boundary balls aplenty. When the opener got out, SRH needed 51 off 48 balls. Priyam Garg returned on his heels and given the team's propensity to back-end implosions, it could have been alarm bells. But Williamson played a lovely innings and was aided by a young Abhishek Sharma. For the first one hour in this game, SRH looked poor, at times bordering on the abject. Their bowlers bowled on both sides of the wicket to start with. The way Jason Holder back-pedalled and dropped Jaiswal, a catch that should have been taken, reeked of casualness. It felt like SRH were going through the motions until they upped their game towards the latter half of the Royals innings. Fine death-overs bowling from Bhuvneshwar Kumar contributed to the improvement. During his 57-ball 82, the Royals captain played nice shots, the best being a six over long-off against Rashid Khan. He stepped down the track, made room, but the ball turned a wee-bit. Samson, though, made adjustments, opened his shoulders and launched it over the fence. Samson is easy on the eye, when he bats in full flow. Reading googlies has been a weak area in his batting, but through his nimble footwork, Samson today didn't allow Khan to settle into a groove.

PROSPECTS OF PAK CRICKET RUINED AFTER NZ, ENG CANCEL TOURS

NEW DELHI, (IANS) There have been strong calls in Pakistan to boycott New Zealand after the Kiwis pulled out from their cricket tour in the country at the last moment. However, the latest fiasco has seen Pakistan losing further as England too followed suit and withdrawn from a proposed tour to Pakistan in October. Threats of terror attack on cricketers have been cited as the reason by these two countries to abandon playing in Pakistan. And their concerns are reasonable, say sources. In 2009, the Sri Lankan cricket team was attacked by terrorists in Pakistan. The ongoing fiasco is set to hurt the prospects of international cricket matches being played in Pakistan, and the country may turn into a 'no-go' area if other countries too follow New Zealand and England. The New Zealand Cricket Board decided to call off its tour of Pakistan over security concerns hours before the first ODI was to be played in Rawalpindi. Bomb squads were seen conducting search operations on the ground a just before the game was supposed to begin. This escalated the fears the New Zealand government had about threats to the visiting cricketers. "Following an escalation in the New Zealand government threat levels for Pakistan, and advice from NZC security advisors on the ground, it has been decided the Blackcaps will not continue with the tour," it said. Even Pakistan Prime Minister Imran Khan's urgent call to his New Zealand counterpart Jacinda Ardern did not work. Ardern called the threats "credible" and "direct and targeted". In 2009, a bus carrying Sri Lankan players was attacked by gunmen, who fired bullets and hurled grenades. Even a rocket launcher was used. The attack led to the killing of six security personnel. Sri Lankan players were also injured. Sri Lanka had dared to travel to Pakistan when others were wary of it due to security issues. The tour was cancelled immediately. While New Zealand did not give specific details of the threats, the arrival of the bomb squad at the stadium at the last moment bolstered the possibility of terror attack. Now, it has come to light that New Zealand took the decision following the threat inputs received from the "Five Eye". New Zealand is part of a five-nation global intelligence network, which also includes the US, the UK, Australia and Canada. "As is normal in situations like this, it is not possible or responsible to go into detail around the nature of these threats, but they were credible and had to be taken seriously. We support the decision made by NZ Cricket," said New Zealand Deputy Prime Minister Grant Robertson. Since the UK also is part of the "Five Eye", England Cricket Board (ECB) may have taken threats of potential attacks on cricket teams visiting Pakistan seriously.

ENGLAND CRICKETER MOEEN ALI RETIRES FROM TEST CRICKET

LONDON, (IANS) England cricket stalwart, all-rounder Moeen Ali, has decided to call time on his Test match career. Ali, 34, who made his Test debut back in 2014 and went on to represent England in 64 Test matches, scored a total of 2,914 Test runs, with his highest being an unbeaten 155. He took 195 Test wickets including 5 five-wicket hauls and scored five Test match centuries during his career. Discussing his decision on Monday, Ali said, "I'm 34 now and I want to play for as long as I can and I just want to enjoy my cricket. Test cricket is amazing, when you're having a good day it's better than any other format by far, it's more rewarding and you feel like you've really earned it. "I will miss just walking out there with the lads, playing against best in the world with that feeling of nerves but also from a bowling point of view, knowing with my best ball I could get anyone out," said Ali who is currently in the UAE playing for IPL franchise Chennai Super Kings. "I've enjoyed Test cricket but that intensity can be too much sometimes and I feel like I've done enough of it and I'm happy and content with how I've done." Ali hopes that his Test career will inspire and open the door for other British Muslims to play for England. "It always takes somebody to inspire you or takes somebody to think if he can do it I can and I hope there are a few people out there who are thinking that. I know he wasn't English but someone like Hashim Amla, when I first saw him, I thought if he can do it I can do it, it does take that little spark. "I'd love one day in 8-10 years' time to say Moeen made it easier for me. There have been guys before me who made it easier, so you hope to open the door for someone else." Ali thanked his coaches, captains and all of his family for their support during his Test career.
